In re: BMW 320i car with Reg. No. BYR 362 EC

NOTICE IN TERMS OF SECTION 39 (1) OF ACT 121 OF 1998

This notice is addressed to the Respondent and to all persons who have an interest in the property listed in Annexure "A". It is meant to advise such persons of some of the options available to them.

Take notice that:

1. The National Director of Public Prosecutions ("the National Director") has obtained a Preservation of Property Order ("the Order"), in terms of section 38 (2) of the Prevention of Organised Crime Act 121 of 1998 ("POCA") against the property listed in Annexure "A". A copy of the Order is attached to this notice.

2. If you have an interest in the property you must understand that it is now at risk because the National Director intends applying to the Port Elizabeth High Court ("the Court") for a forfeiture order within ninety (90) days of the publication of the Order in the Government Gazette ("the Gazette"). The Order will remain in force until:

2.1 a Forfeiture Order granted by the Court in respect of the property subject to the Order remains unsatisfied; or

2.2 the National Director fails to apply for a Forfeiture Order within ninety (90) days after publication of the Order in the Gazette; or

2.3 the Order is set aside by the Court before expiry of ninety (90) days from date of its publication in the Gazette.

3. You are advised to obtain legal advice to ascertain if you can protect your interest and, if so, how to protect it. If you wish to oppose this Application, or to apply for an Order excluding your interest in the property from the operation of the Forfeiture Order that may be made, you must give notice of such intention in terms of the Order attached to this notice. The requirements of such notice are dealt with in sections 39 (3), (4) and (5) of POCA. An appearance must comply with these requirements.

4. If this notice has been served on you or delivered to you, you must within fourteen (14) days after that date give notice of your intention to oppose this application or to apply for an Order excluding your interest in the property from the operation of the Forfeiture Order that may be granted. If you fail to do so within that time your interest in the property may be defeated by a Forfeiture Order granted by default in terms of sections 50 and 53 of POCA.

ORDERS OF THE COURT (continued) • ORDERS VAN DIE HOF (vervolg)

5. If this notice has not been served or delivered to you, you must within fourteen (14) days after the date of publication of the Preservation Order in the Gazette give notice of your intention to oppose this Application or to apply for an Order excluding your interest in the property from the operation of the Forfeiture Order that may be granted.

6. For a notice of intention to oppose this Application to be valid, you must:

6.1 Serve or deliver the original to the Registrar of the Court;

6.2 serve or deliver a copy to State Attorney, 29 Western Road, Central, Port Elizabeth;

6.3 state therein an address within eight (8) kilometers of the Court at which you will accept notice and service or delivery of all documents relating to this Application; and

6.4 attach to the notice an affidavit in which you set out;

6.4.1 full particulars of the identity of the person giving the notice;

6.4.2 the nature and extent of his or her interest in the property concerned;

6.4.3 whether you intend to oppose the making of the Forfeiture Order, or to apply for an order:

6.4.3.1 excluding your interest in that property from the operation from the Order; or

6.4.3.2 varying the operation of the Order in respect of that property;

6.4.4 whether you admit or deny that the property concerned is an instrumentality of an offence referred to in Schedule 1 of POCA, or is the proceeds of unlawful activities;

6.4.5 the facts:

6.4.5.1 on which you intend to rely in opposing the making of a Forfeiture Order or applying for an Order referred to in 6.4.3.1 and/or 6.4.3.2 above;

6.4.5.2 on the basis of which you admit or deny that the property concerned is an instrumentality of an offence referred to in Schedule 1 of POCA, or is the proceeds of unlawful activities.

7. If you give notice in terms of the Order and comply with the above requirements for the notice you will be entitled to be given fourteen (14) days' notice of the Application for the Forfeiture Order.

8. If you should fail to give notice of your intention to oppose validly and in good time, or if you should not have received or become aware of this notice, you may yet have grounds to apply in terms of section 49 of POCA for leave of the Court to give late notice of your intention to oppose.

9. Any person affected by the Preservation Order may apply to the Court to have that Order set aside in the circumstances mentioned in section 47 (1) of POCA. In addition, the Court is obliged by the provisions of section 47 (1) (b) of POCA to set aside or rescind the Preservation Order when the proceedings against the Defendant concerned are concluded. However, section 50 (4) of POCA also provides that the validity of a Forfeiture Order is not affected by the outcome of the criminal proceedings in respect of an offence with which the property is associated.

10. The Order in respect of immovable property may be rescinded or set aside by the Court at any time on the application by a person who is affected by it.

11. A Forfeiture Order must also be published in the Gazette in terms of section 50 (5) of POCA. If a Forfeiture Order should have been made before you become aware that it is to be sought, you may have grounds on which to apply to this Court in terms of section 54 of POCA for the exclusion of your interest from the operation of the Forfeiture Order already made, or for an order varying the operation of the Forfeiture Order in respect of the property. You will then have to comply with the procedural requirements of section 54. You will have only forty-five (45) days from the date of publication of the Forfeiture Order in the Gazette in which to make an application to the Court for relief.

12. If a Forfeiture Order or any other Order under section 53 (1) (b) of POCA should be made by default, any person whose interest in the property concerned is affected by the Order will have the right, within twenty (20) days after acquiring knowledge of the Order, to set the matter down for variation or rescission of the Order by the Court and the Court is empowered, upon good cause shown, to vary or rescind the default Order or to give some other direction on such terms as it deems appropriate.

In the matter between: THE NATIONAL DIRECTOR OF PUBLIC PROSECUTIONS, Applicant, and PRINCE SIBUSISO MAJOLA, Respondent

In re: VW Combi with Registration No. CDX 113 GP

NOTICE IN TERMS OF SECTION 39 (1) OF ACT 121 OF 1998

This notice is addressed to the Respondent and to all persons who have an interest in the property. It is meant to advise such persons of some of the options available to them.

Take notice that:

1. The National Director of Public Prosecutions ("the National Director") has obtained a preservation of property order ("the Order") in terms of Section 38 (2) of the Prevention of Organised Crime Act 121 of 1998 ("POCA"), against the property. A copy of the Order is attached to this notice.

2. If you have an interest in the property you should understand that it is now at risk because the National Director intends applying to the Port Elizabeth High Court ("the Court") for a forfeiture order within ninety (90) days of the publication of the order in the Government Gazette ("the Gazette"). A preservation of property order shall expire 90 days after the date on which notice of the making of the Order is published in the Government Gazette unless:

2.1 There is an application for a forfeiture order pending before the High Court, in respect of the property, subject to the preservation of property order.

2.2 There is an unsatisfied forfeiture order in force in relation to the property subject to preservation of property order; or

2.3 The Order is rescinded before the expiry of that period.

3. You are advised to obtain legal advice to ascertain if you can protect your interest and, if so, how to protect it. If you wish to oppose this application, or to apply for an order excluding your interest in the property from the operation of the forfeiture order that may be made, you must give notice of such intention in terms of the Order attached to this notice. The requirements of such notice are dealt with in Sections 39 (3), (4) and (5) of POCA. An appearance must comply with these requirements.

4. If this notice has been served on you or delivered to you, you must within fourteen (14) days after that date give notice of your intention to oppose this application or to apply for an order excluding your interest in the property from the operation of the forfeiture order that may be granted. If you fail to do so within that time your interest in the property may be defeated by a forfeiture order granted by default in terms of Sections 50 and 53 of POCA.

5. If this notice has not be served or delivered to you, you must within fourteen (14) days after the date of publication of the preservation order in the Gazette, give notice of your intention to oppose this application or to apply for an order excluding your interest in the property from the operation of the forfeiture order that may be granted.

6. For a notice of intention to oppose this application to be valid, you must:

6.1 Serve or deliver the original to the Registrar of the Court.

6.2 Serve or deliver a copy to State Attorney, Port Elizabeth, at 29 Western Road, Central, Port Elizabeth.

6.3 State therein an address within eight (8) kilometres of the Court at which you will accept notice and service or delivery of all documents relating to this application; and

6.4 attach to the notice an affidavit in which you set out.

6.4.1 Full particulars of the identity of the person giving the notice.

6.4.2 The nature and extent of his or her interest in the property concerned.

6.4.3 Whether you intend to oppose the making of the forfeiture order, or to apply for an order:

6.4.3.1 Excluding your interest in that property from the operation from the Order; or

6.4.3.2 Varying the operation of the Order in respect of that property.

6.4.4 Whether you admit or deny that the property concerned is an instrumentality of an offence referred to in Schedule 1 of POCA, or is the proceeds of unlawful activities.

6.4.5 The fact:

6.4.5.1 On which you intend to rely in opposing the making of a forfeiture order or applying for an order referred to in 6.4.3.1 and/or 6.4.3.2 above.

6.4.5.2 On the basis of which you admit or deny that the property concerned is an instrumentality of an offence referred to in Schedule 1 of POCA, or is the proceeds of unlawful activities.

7. If you give notice in terms of the Order and comply with the above requirements for the notice you will be entitled to be given fourteen (14) days notice of the application for the forfeiture order.

8. If you should fail to give notice of your intention to oppose validly and in good time, or if you should not have received or become aware of this notice, you may yet have grounds to apply in terms of Section 49 of POCA, for leave of the Court to give late notice of your intention to oppose.

9. Any person affected by the preservation order may apply to the Court to have that Order set aside in the circumstances mentioned in Section 47 (1) of POCA. In addition, the Court is obliged by the provisions of Section 47 (1) (b) of POCA, to set aside or rescind the preservation order when the proceedings against the Defendant concerned are concluded. However, Section 50 (4) of POCA, also provide that the validity of a forfeiture order is not affected by the outcome of the criminal proceedings in respect of an offence with which the property is associated.

10. The Order in respect of immovable property may be rescinded or set aside by the Court at any time on the application by a person who is affected by it.

11. A forfeiture order must also be published in the Gazette in terms of Section 50 (5) of POCA. If a forfeiture order should have been made before you become aware that it is to be sought, you may have grounds on which to apply to this Court in terms of Section 54 of POCA, for the exclusion of your interest from the operation of the forfeiture order already made, or for an order varying the operation of the forfeiture order in respect of the property. You will then have to comply with the procedural requirements of Section 54. You will have only forty-five (45) days from the date of publication of the forfeiture order in the Gazette in which to make an application to the Court for relief.

12. If a forfeiture order or any other order under Section 53 (1) (b) of POCA , should be made by default, any person whose interest in the property concerned is affected by the Order, will have the right, within twenty (20) days after acquiring knowledge of the Order, to set the matter down for variation or rescission of the Order by the Court and the Court is empowered, upon good cause shown, to vary or rescind the default order or to give some other direction on such terms as it deems appropriate.

Case No. 406/2012
Date Heard: 18-10-2013
Date Delivered: 01-11-2013

IN THE HIGH COURT OF SOUTH AFRICA

(Northern Cape High Court, Kimberley)

In the matter between: THE NATIONAL DIRECTOR OF PUBLIC PROSECUTIONS, Applicant, and JOHNNY CULLEN OLIVIER, Respondent

JUDGMENT

Lever, AJ

1. This is an application brought under the provisions of chapter 6 of the Prevention of Organised Crime Act No. 121 of 1998 ("POCA") to have a certain Mercedes Benz bearing registration number BHH 215 NC ("the property" declared forfeit. The property belongs to the Respondent.

2. The property was originally seized by members of the South African Police Services ("SAPS") on the 19th September 2011 at Douglas in the Northern Cape. The applicant obtained a Provisional Preservation Order on the 9th March 2012. The matter became opposed. The original Provisional Preservation Order lapsed due to the 90 day period passing without the applicant applying for the forfeiture of the property. The applicant then applied for and was granted a fresh Provisional Preservation Order on the 21st September 2012. The present application for the forfeiture of the property appears to have been filed on the 3rd October 2012.

3. Both parties to the present application for forfeiture of the property referred to their respective papers filed in the first Provisional Preservation Order and incorporated the respective sets of affidavits into the present application by reference.

4. On the applicant's version of events, the complainant in the present matter one Tshazibane, had recently received a lump sum pension payout and had expressed interest in purchasing a bakkie with part of the pension money. On the 19th September 2011, on Bertie and complainant travelled from Douglas to Kimberley in search of a bakkie. The taxi they travelled in dropped them off outside KFC in Kimberley. The respondent was already waiting for them in the property, the relevant vehicle, inside the parking area of KFC. The respondent then transported the complainant and Bertie in the property to a house in a suburb of Kimberley. Two other persons joined the respondent in the said house, namely one Fee and one Rooi. The said Free and Rooi wanted to know from the complainant and Bertie whether they had money in their bank accounts. They obtained the Bank Cards from the complainant and Bertie together with their respective PIN numbers. The respondent handed the keys to the property, the relevant vehicle, to Rooi allowing him to go to ABSA Bank in Kimberley to check the relevant bank accounts. Rooi returned informing everybody that there was no money in the respective bank accounts. Free then threatened the complainant and Bertie informing them that they would not go home unless they paid an amount of R100 000.00 (one hundred thousand Rand). The respondent together with Free and Rooi forced the complainant and Bertie into the property, the relevant vehicle, and forced the complainant to phone his wife with the request to transfer the R100 000.00 from her account to the complainants account. the complainant was being detained in the vehicle while this was taking place. The respondent was driving the property (the relevant vehicle) at this time. The respondent, Rooi and Fee decided at this time that they must travel to Douglas in the property (the relevant vehicle) and that complainant should phone his wife to arrange for the withdrawal of the money. This raised the complainant's wife's suspicions and she contacted the police with her suspicions that a robbery was under way. The complainant's wife and the police proceeded to the bank in Douglas to wait for the party. On arrival complainant and Free entered the bank where Free was arrested. When respondent and Rooi saw the police exiting the bank, respondent allowed Rooi to drive off in order to avoid arrest. It is the applicant's case that this behaviour on the part of the respondent constitutes extortion, kidnapping and defeating the ends of justice. All of the aforementioned crimes are provided for in schedule 1 of POCA.

5. The respondent in answering these allegations sets up a number of disputes of fact. Not all of them are relevant for the present purposes. The relevant disputes of fact in the present circumstances being that respondent denies the charges of kidnaping and extortion and declares that the whole transaction was an illegal diamond sale. The exact words used by the respondent in his answering affidavit relating to the illegal diamond transaction that was intended on his version is contained in the following paragraphs:

"9.1 Ter aanvan word hierdie Agbare Hof se aandag daarop gevistig dat daar geen sprake was van enige ontvoering afpersing of enige dreigemente teenoor Mnr Tshazibane (the complainant) nie". (Insert added).

"9.2 Die totale doel van die ontmoeting met Tshazibane en die feit dat Tshazibane geld wou oorbetaal, was as gevolg daarvan dat Tshazibane 'n besigheidstransaksie wou doen vir die aankoop van ongeslypte diamante."

"9.4 Ek voer respekvol aan dat die totale storie van Mnr Tshazibane dat 'n bakkie aangekoop sou word, van alle waarheid ontbloot is en dat die hele transkasie gesentreer het rondom die aankoop van ongeslypte diamante."

"10.2 Dit is korrek dat die Mercedes Benz voertuig weggery het en die rede daarvoor was daar 'n onwettige diamant-transaksie in die process was om plaas te vind. Ek ontken egter dat ek weg gery het aangesien enigiemand aangehou was en/of afgedreig was."

6. The respondent in his answering affidavit in the final forfeiture application takes up the position that his failure to deal with any allegation made in the applicant's founding affidavit dated the 4 December 2012, must not be seen as an admission of that allegation, but he requests that each and every allegation not dealt with be deemed to have been placed in dispute. The rules relating to application proceedings are clear. The respondent cannot make his own rules. Respondent's answering affidavit is not merely correspondence between opposing sets of attorneys. It is very much subject to the Uniform Rules of Court. When raised this matter with Mr. Van Tonder, the respondent's Counsel, he quite correctly did not even argue the point. In any event the position that respondent seeks to adopt cannot detract from the admissions already made in the Provisional Protection Order proceedings and by virtue of the fact that both parties incorporate their respective affidavits in the Provisional Protection Order proceedings into the present application by reference any admissions made or deemed made by respondent in those proceedings are equally valid in the present proceedings. Accordingly, respondent has made or has been deemed to have made the following admissions:

6.1. When the property, the relevant vehicle, was seized it had false number plates on it; and

6.2 That the entire transaction, whether it be for illicit diamond trading or extortion was an amount of R100 000.00 (one hundred thousand rand).

7. Section 37 of POCA makes it clear that the present precedings are civil proceedings. The relevance of this is that there can quite clearly be no question of either a constitutional or common law right available to the respondent against incriminating himself. Furthermore, respondent has not claimed any such right. Section 50 (4) of POCA makes it clear that forfeiture proceedings or more precisely, the outcome thereof, are not affected by the outcome of any criminal proceedings or even any investigations into the relevant matter.

8. The offences that defendant admits to in his answering affidavit are offences contained in schedule 1 of POCA. In particular reference is made to item 27 of schedule 1 of POCA which deals with any offence under any law relating to illicit dealing in or possession of precious metals or precious stones. Furthermore, reference is made to item 29 of schedule 1 of POCA. It is clear from the passages of Respondent's answering affidavit quoted above that respondent admits to being involved in illicit diamond dealing. It is furthermore clear form the context of the said answering affidavit and the passages of such affidavit set out above the respondent admits to defeating the ends of justice by Rooi and the respondent driving off to evade arrest in the property (being the relevant vehicle). It flows from that, that the property was an instrumentality of the offence of defeating or obstructing the ends of justice. When these issues were put to Mr. Van Tonder, the respondent's Counsel, in argument, he quiet correctly did not argue them but proceeded to the next stage of the enquiry, namely the proportionality of the forfeiture of the property (the relevant vehicle).

9. It is common cause that the respondent did not raise the innocent owner defence provided for in POCA.

10. Mr. Van Tonder, on behalf of the respondent, made certain submissions relating to the proportionality of the forfeiture of the property, inter alia:

10.1. The only offence relevant to POCA which the respondent admitted to and where proof existed that the property, the relevant vehicle, was an instrumentality of an offence is defeating or obstructing the ends of justice;

10.2 On the authority of paragraph 145 of the judgment of Mr. Justice Sachs as read with paragraphs 126, 129, 130 and 132 of Deputy Chief Justice Moseneke's judgment in the Mohunram matter[1], it was argued that there must be some connection between the offence where the property, being the relevant vehicle, had been established to be an instrumentality of such offence and the objects of POCA;

10.3 The objects of POCA related to organised crime; and

10.4 The applicant had not established any link with "organised crime" in either the admitted illegal diamond transaction or the admitted offence of defeating or obstructing the ends of justice.

11. These submission probably overstate the position put by Justice Sachs and Deputy Chief Justice Moseneke. The matter again came before the Constitutional Court in the matter of Van der Burg & Another NDPP & Another[2]. Where Justice Van der Westhuizen, writing for the unanimous Constitutional Court, dealt with the positions of DCJ Moseneke and Sachs J and stated: "... The proportionality requirement is aimed, on the hand, at balancing the constitutional imperative of law enforcement and combatting crime and the seriousness of the offence against, on the other, the right not be deprived arbitrarily of property..."[3].

12. On the facts of the Van der Burg Case[4], it is clear that the civil forfeiture contemplated by chapter 6 of POCA is available where the offence concerned is not connected to organised crime.

13. As Madam Justice Nkabinde pointed out in the Prophet case[5] the inquiry into proportionality takes full account of the relevant circumstances of each case.

14. Turning now to the facts of the present case. The applicant did not seek a referral to oral evidence and such this Court cannot deal with the substance of the kidnapping and extortion allegations as although applicant referred to the Plascon - Evans case[6], applicant could not demonstrate that the respondent's denials or the version he set up, where inherently improbable.

15. The respondent has himself admitted that the property, being the relevant vehicle, was used in order to defeat or obstruct the course of justice. It must be remembered that this was not just a spur of the moment flight from justice. The said vehicle had false number plates at the time. This is indicative that the respondent had intended at all material times that the vehicle concerned would be used as an instrument to defeat or obstruct the course of justice. There is no other reasonable interpretation for the fact that the said vehicle had been fitted with false number plates.

16. It is true that the respondent and his co-accused had been charged with kidnapping, extortion and defeating or obstruction the course of justice in respect of the aforementioned two charges. It is also true that this prosecution has for all intents and purposes failed. The admitted offences relating to the illicit diamond dealing were not known to the applicant before the respondent filed his opposing papers in the first Provisional Protection Order application. As has been pointed out above the provisions of section 50 (4) of POCA make it clear that civil forfeiture is not dependent upon the outcome of a prosecution or indeed an investigation.

17. In the context of the proportionality enquiry it is important to mention one further aspect relating to the admission by the respondent. Having regard to the fact that the relevant admission was made early in the proceedings and the manner in which the respondent subsequently ran his case, it is clear that he thought he would "get away with it". That he had "outsmarted" the system that he could admit to criminal activity and still secure the return of the property concerned. On a balance of probabilities, this attitude leads to the conclusion that were the property returned to the respondent he would simply slap on another set of false number plates and continue to use the said vehicle as an instrumentality of crime. As Madam Justice Nkabinde pointed out in the Prophet case[7] civil forfeiture is based on the legal fiction that the property and not the owner has contravened the law. One of the aims of chapter 6 of POCA is to stop the unlawful use of the relevant property. In this context, I belive it is appropriate to add these facts and conclusions into the scale when considering the question of proportionality.

18. Furthermore, the respondent has admitted or is deemed to have admitted that the amount involved in the unlawful transaction is the amount of R100 000.00 (one hundred thousand rand). At the time of the first Provisional Protection Order the relevant vehicle had been valued at R17 500.00 (seventeen thousand five hundred rand). While the onus of establishing the proportionality of a forfeiture always rests on the applicant there are some facts that will always be peculiarly within the knowledge of the respondent[8]. The respondent has not put forward any special facts that show he will suffer any undue hardship if the relevant vehicle is declared forfeit under chapter 6 of POCA. Accordingly, the court cannot weigh up his personal circumstances in his exercise of determining the proportionality or otherwise of the forfeiture of the said vehicle.

19. It seems to me that the crime of offence of defeating the ends of justice as it is set out in item 29 on schedule 1 of POCA has another component that needs to be considered. Defeating or obstructing the course of justice directly undermines the society that we, as a nation, aspire to. In these circumstances the deterrent effect of the civil forfeiture described in chapter 6 is directly relevant. It is not just declaring a vehicle with a relatively small monetary value forfeit, it also sends an important message to all persons contemplating fitting false number plates and trying to use their vehicles to evade the law that they may also risk losing such vehicle.

20. In all the circumstances of this case I conclude that forfeiture of the relevant vehicle is not disproportionate.

21. The issue of costs remains to be considered. The applicant omitted to seek a costs order in its Notice of Motion dated 5 December 2012. At the hearing hereof Mr. Ontong, who appeared for the applicant sought a costs Order in favour of the applicant. While the issue of costs does not appear in the said Notice of Motion, this is not a bar to applicant being awarded costs. Costs of suit is merely a plus petitio. The primary rule regarding costs is that it is in the discretion of this Court. The Ordinary rule relating to costs is that costs usually follow the event, unless there are ground to depart from the ordinary rule, in which case the Court will exercise its discretion. In the present case i see no reason to depart from the ordinary rule and costs will follow the event.
