administration facilities and any associated infrastructure that may lead to the generation, transmission, and distribution of electricity on a commercial basis. Such infrastructure may also include but is not limited to: workshops and stores, offices, site canteen, medical station, fire station, a tourist facilitation centre, ambulance garage, compressor house buildings, water supply infrastructure, research facilities, guard houses and recreational facilities for personnel.

- (ii) The inclusion in paragraph 2.5, Table B and paragraph 3.1.1 of the scheme regulations as contemplated in paragraph 1(a) above, of "Renewable energy structure" as a consent use in the "Agricultural zone 1";
- (iii) The inclusion, in the scheme regulations as contemplated in paragraph 1(b) above of "Renewable energy structure" as a consent use in the appropriate places in respect of the corresponding zone as contemplated in paragraph (ii) above;
- (iv) The inclusion, as a new paragraph 3.1.5 under a new heading, "Renewable energy structure" in the scheme regulations as contemplated in paragraph 1(a) above, and in the appropriate places in the scheme regulations as contemplated in paragraph 1(b) above, of the following development parameters;

Renewable Energy Structure Development Parameters

Height: Wind Turbine at the most 200 metres above the mean ground level of land.

Setback: A distance equal to 1.5 times the maximum structure height from the nearest public, residential or commercial structures, the boundary of the land unit and any public road and or public right of way.

Consent Use: The consent use for the erection on and utilization of the property / land portion for a renewable energy structure be granted for a maximum period of 25 (twenty five) years.

Appurtenant Structures

All appurtenant structures to a "Renewable energy structure" must be subject to reasonable regulations concerning the bulk and height of structures and determining yard size, setbacks, open space, parking and building coverage requirements;

All such appurtenant structures must be -

Architecturally compatible with each other, and Appurtenant structures should be shaded from view by indigenous vegetation and / or clustered to minimize visual impacts; and

A site development plan must be submitted and approved by the municipality concerned indicating the location, specifications as well as positioning of the renewable energy structure and associated facilities supporting infrastructure and access roads. The site development plan must form part of the approval.

The location of the proposed renewable energy structures as well the associated buildings, roads and servitudes must comply with relevant Environmental Legislation.
