2. The rights which are hereby expropriated are the following:

2.1 Servitudes to construct tunnels at a minimum with varying depths below the surface of the said land within the areas as described above, shown on the accompanying sketch plans, and referred to as the servitude areas, for the purpose of accommodating railway lines as defined in section 1 of the Act, subject to the following terms:

2.1.1. The MEG shall have the right to tunnel below the surface of the servitude areas and to carry out such investigations and tests, including the sinking of boreholes for the purpose of geological investigations, as may be necessary for or in connection with the said tunneling and for that purpose to enter upon the servitude areas with the necessary workers, machines, equipment, instruments and vehicles to carry out such investigations and tests, on the completion of which the MEG shall be obliged to repair any damage caused to the surface of the servitude areas by and during such investigations and tests.

2.1.2. The surface of the servitude areas may be used by the owner Subject to the rights herein expropriated by the MEG, but none of the following activities may be conducted on or below the surface of the servitude areas without the written permission of the MEG or his delegatee first having been had and obtained and subject to such conditions as the MEG or his delegatee may lay down:

- The sinking of boreholes.
- The construction of basements below the surface of the servitude areas.
- Piling of foundations of any buildings or structures to be erected on the surface of the servitude areas.
- The construction, laying or installation of any pipelines, electrical lines, cables or any structure of whatsoever nature at depths exceeding three meters below the surface of the servitude areas.
- The use of explosives for any excavation of whatsoever nature below the surface of the servitude areas.
- Any excavation of any nature deeper than three meters below the surface of the servitude areas.

2.2. The right to construct, use and operate a railway line as defined in section 1 of the Act below the surface of the servitude areas in the said tunnels and to exercise all such rights and powers in respect of such railway line as are conferred upon the MEG by the Act subject to the observance of all duties set out in the Act with respect to such construction, use and operation.

3. The date of expropriation is 31 August 2001 on which date the expropriated rights pass to the MEG in terms of section 24 (1) of the Act.

4. The land owners are requested in terms of section 26 (1) of the Act, to claim the amount for the expropriated rights and how the amounts are made up and full particulars of improvements, which in your opinion , are affected by the expropriation of the rights. Section 28 of the Act sets out the basis of compensation to which the land owners are entitled in consequences of the said expropriations. The address to which the land owners desire that further documents in connection with the expropriation must be sent must be indicated.

5. The MEC may extend the period of 60 days, once only, and must do so for a further 60 days if required by the land owners.
6. The land owners' attention are furthermore directed to the provisions of section 28 (4) (a) (ii) of the Act in terms whereof, if they do not comply with the provisions of section 26(1) of the Act to which their attention have been drawn above, no interest will be payable on any outstanding portion of the compensation payable to them until the date on which they comply with the said section 26(1).
7. In terms of section 26(4) of the Act in terms whereof a person who willfully furnishes false or misleading particulars under section of the Act or who fails to comply with the request in terms of section 26(3) thereof commits an offence.
8. Any written statement in terms of section 26 (1) of the Act as well as all correspondence must be directed to the following address:
