- (e) Ensure that on completion of business for the day, the area or site occupied by him or her for the purposes of trade is free of litter;
- (f) Take such precautions in the course of conducting his or her business as may be necessary to prevent the spilling onto a public road, or public place, or into a storm water drain, of any fat, oil or grease;

INFORMAL STREET TRADING BY-LAW

- (g) Ensure that no smoke, fumes or other substance, odours, or noise emanating from his or her activities causes pollution of any kind;
- (h) On request by an authorized official of the Council, move his or her property so as to permit the cleansing of the space of the area or site where he or she is trading, or the effecting of council services.

Signs indicating restricted and prohibited areas.

9. (a) The Council may, by resolution and in terms of section 6A(2) of the Act, declare any place in its area of jurisdiction to be an area in which street trading is restricted or prohibited, and must, to enable compliance therewith, prescribe or make signs, markings or other devices indicating-

- (i) specified hours, places, goods or services in respect of which street trading are restricted or prohibited;
- (ii) the locations of boundaries of restricted or prohibited areas;
- (iii) the boundaries of a stand or area set apart for the purposes of the carrying on of the business of street trading;
- (iv) the fact that any such stand or area has been let or otherwise allocated; and
- (v) any restriction or prohibition against street trading in terms of these By -laws;

(b) The Council may display any such sign, marking or device in such a position and manner as will indicate any restriction or prohibition and or the location or boundaries of the area or stand concerned;

(c) Any sign erected in terms of this By-Law or any other law, shall serve as sufficient notice to a street trader of the prohibition or restriction of the area concerned; and

(d) Any sign may be amended from time to time and displayed by the Council for the purpose of this By-Law, and shall have the same effect as a road sign in terms of the National Road Traffic Act 1996.

Removal and impoundment

10. (1) Any authorized official may remove and impound any property of a street trader-

(a) which he or she reasonably suspects is being used or which intended to be used or has been used in or in connection with street trading; and

(b) which he or she finds at a place where street trading is restricted or prohibited and which, constitutes an infringement of any such restriction or prohibition whether or not such property is in possession or under the control of any person at the time of such removal or impoundment.

INFORMAL STREET TRADING BY-LAW

(2) Any authorized official acting in terms of subsection 1 above must, except where goods have been left or abandoned, issue to the person carrying on the business of a street trader, a receipt for any property so removed and impounded, which receipt must-

- (i) itemize the property to be removed and impounded;
- (ii) provide the address where the impounded property will be kept, and the period thereof;
- (iii) state the conditions for the release of the impounded property;
- (iv) state the terms and conditions relating to the sale of unclaimed property by public auction; and
- (v) provide the name and address of a council official to whom any representations regarding the impoundment may be made, and the date and time by which this must be done.

(3) If any property about to be impounded is attached to any immovable property or a structure, and such property is under the apparent control of a person present thereat, any authorized official of the Council may order such person to remove the property, and if such person refuses or fails to comply, he or she shall be guilty of an offence.

(4) When any person fails to comply with an order to remove the property referred to in subsection (3), any authorized official of the Council may take such steps as may be necessary to remove such property.

Vicarious responsibility of persons carrying on business

11. (1) When an employee of a street trader contravenes a provision of this By-Law the employer shall be deemed to have committed such contravention him or her unless such employee satisfies the court that-

- (a) he or she neither connived at nor permitted such contravention and;
- (b) he or she took reasonable steps to prevent such contravention.

(2) The fact that the employer issued instructions prohibiting such contravention shall not in itself constitute sufficient proof of such reasonable steps.

Offences and Penalties

12. Any person who -

- (a) contravenes or fails to comply with any provision of this By-Law;
- (b) fails to comply with any notice issued in terms of this By-Law; or
- (c) fails to comply with any lawful instruction given in terms of this By-Law; or
- (d) who obstructs or hinders any authorized representative of the Council in the execution of his or her duties under this By-Law - is guilty of an offence and liable on conviction to a fine or in default of payment, to imprisonment for a period not exceeding six months, and in the case of a continuing offence, to a further fine not exceeding R50, or in default of payment, to imprisonment not exceeding one day, for every day during the continuance of such offence, after a written notice has been issued by the Council, and served on the person concerned, requesting the discontinuance of such offence.

Short title and Commencement

13. This by law shall be called Informal Street Trading By-law and come into operation on the date of publication in the Provincial Gazette.
