40	South African Schools Act (84/1996): Code of Conduct for Members of Governing Bodies of Public Schools.....	3	1902

GENERAL NOTICE

NOTICE 40 OF 2011

I, Mrs Reginah Makgabo Mhaule, Member of the Executive Council responsible for Basic Education in Mpumalanga, hereby determine the Code of Conduct for Members of Governing Bodies of Public Schools in terms of section 18A of the South African Schools Act, 1996 (Act NO 84 of 1996)

R M MHAULE

Member of the Executive Council responsible for Basic Education, Mpumalanga Province

SCHEDULE

1. Introduction

(1) The South African Schools Act, 1996 (Act NO 84 of 1996) ("the Act") contemplates an education system in which four major stakeholders, namely the State, parents, educators and learners, co-operate to advance specified objectives relating to schooling and the provision of public education.

(2) Members of the Governing Bodies are tasked with the duty of, inter alia overseeing the provision of public education at public schools.

2. Status and application of Code of Conduct

(1) This is a Code of Conduct for members of the governing body of a public school ("the Code") determined by the Member of the Executive Council responsible for Education ("the MEC") in terms of section 18A of the Act.

(2) The Code applies to all members of the governing bodies of public schools ("governing bodies") both individually and collectively.

3. Purpose of Code

(1) The purpose of the Code is to regulate the conduct of members of the governing body when performing their roles and functions for and on behalf of the public school.

(2) The Code is also intended to -

- (a) establish a disciplined and purposeful school environment dedicated to the improvement and maintenance of quality governing structure at the public school, and

(b) provide for the procedure for the suspension or removal of members of the governing body and to safeguard their interests in such proceedings.

4. General functions and duties of members of governing body

(1) Every member of a governing body occupies a position of trust towards his or her public school.

(2) Every member of a governing body has a fiduciary duty to the public school, which requires that the member must at all times, act-

(a) with fidelity, honesty, integrity and in good faith; and

(b) in the best interests of the school.

(3) Members of a governing body are not responsible for the professional management of the public school and must not interfere with the professional management of the public school, which rests with the school principal.

4) They will encourage the open expression of views at meetings, but accept collective responsibility for all decisions made by the governing body or its delegated agents. This means that they will not speak against decisions, in public or private, outside the governing body.

5) They will only speak or act on behalf of the governing body when they have been specifically authorized to do so. In making or responsible to criticism or complaints affecting a school they will follow the procedures established by the governing body.

6) Their visits to school will be undertaken within the framework established by the governing body, in agreement with the principal and staff

7) In discharging duties they always be mindful of their responsibilities to maintain and develop the ethos and repudiation of our schools

(8) When making decisions, in his or her capacity as a member of a governing body, a member must-

(a) ensure that such decisions are procedurally fair and supported by reasons;

(b) act honestly and rationally, and not arbitrarily or capriciously;

(c) not conduct himself or herself in a manner that would raise a reasonable suspicion of bias; and

- (d) not be influenced by an ulterior motive or purpose.
 - (c) in a manner that provides effective, transparent, and accountable school administration ensuring that decisions are justifiable and legitimate; and
 - (d) in a manner that facilitates effective education and learning in public schools.
- (6) Every member of a governing body must-
- (a) take all practical steps to ensure that the stakeholders of public schools derive as much educational benefit from public schools as is possible;
 - (b) uphold the rights of all learners, parents, educators and other employees and promote their acceptance of responsibility for the organisation and governance of public schools;
 - (c) uphold the democratic values of the Republic of South Africa;
 - (d) seek to redress the imbalances of the past; and
 - (e) combat all forms of unfair discrimination and intolerance by ensuring that all learners irrespective of race, colour, ethnicity, gender and creed are provided with quality education.

5. Duty of members of governing body to avoid conflicts of interest

- (1) Every member of a governing body must-
- (a) take every possible step to avoid a conflict of interest between his or her personal interests and the interests of the school;
 - (b) not place himself or herself in a position where his or her personal interests could conflict with his or her duties to the public school, and in particular must not:
 - (i) use confidential information improperly and not make known the contents of such confidential information to outside parties
 - (ii) not accept secret profits, bribes or any other corrupt, or unconscionable benefits;
 - (c) not use information which is not yet available to the public for his or her own personal benefit; and
 - (d) disclose to the governing body immediately after having been appointed as a member of a SGB in writing any conflict of interest or potential conflict of interest that may arise, including particulars of such conflicts of interest.

(2) When a member of a governing body becomes aware that the governing body will be taking a decision in which a member, a member's close family, or associates have an interest, the member must/ forthwith-

- (a) declare his or her interest in writing to the Chairperson of the governing body;
- (b) ensure that the interest is declared and minuted at the next meeting of the governing body, and any other relevant sub-committee of the governing body; and
- (c) recuse himself or herself from any meeting of the governing body or sub-committee of the governing body where the issue is considered.

6. Duty of members of governing body relating to confidential information

(1) While executing their duties and functions, members of the governing body may have access to private and confidential information relating to learners, parents, and employees of the public school.

(2) A member of the governing body must consequently-

- (a) only use such information for the purpose for which it is disclosed;
- (b) respect privacy and maintain confidentiality in respect of any such information; and
- (c) not divulge such information except to the extent necessary to enable himself or herself to perform the duties or functions or required by law.

7. Duty of members of governing school body relating to property of public school

(1) Every member of the governing body must-

- (a) exercise the utmost care to ensure the reasonable protection of property of the public school; and
- (b) act with fidelity, honesty, integrity and in the best interest of the public school when administering, controlling and managing the property of the school.

8. Duty of members of governing body relating to finances of public school

- (d) act with fidelity, honesty, integrity and in the best interest of the public school when administering, controlling and managing the finances of the public school;
- (e) seek to prevent any prejudice to the financial interests of the public school;
- (f) take steps to solicit sponsorships, donations or voluntary contributions from individuals and businesses in the community served by the school for the benefit of the public school in order to improve the quality of education provided by the public school to all learners, but subject to the conditions set out in applicable laws;
- (g) take effective and appropriate steps to-
 - (ii) prevent irregular, fruitless, and wasteful expenditure, and losses resulting from any criminal conduct, and any expenditure not complying with the policies of the public school; and
 - (ii) manage the funds of the public school efficiently and economically;
- (h) keep proper records of-
 - (i) funds received and spent by the public school;
 - (i) assets and liabilities of the public school; and
 - (ii) the school's financial transactions.

9. Duty to attend meetings of governing body

- (1) Members of governing bodies must-
 - (a) meet at least once every school term;

(b) hold a meeting with each of the following group of persons at least once a year:

- (i) parents;
- (ii) learners;
- (iii) educators;
- and

(iv) other staff;

(c) report to parents , learners and educators in respect of their functions at least once a year;

(d) keep minutes of governing body meetings and make them available for inspection by the provincial Head of Department and any interested person who has submitted a request in terms of the Promotion of Access to Information Act .

(e) attend all meetings held by the governing body or subcommittees of the governing body of which they are members and

(f) apply their mind to matters to be addressed at the meetings of the governing body.

(2) Members of the governing body of a public school who are not able to attend a meeting must seek leave in writing from the Chairperson of the governing body as soon as possible but before the meeting is held. Where a member of a governing body is unable to seek leave before the meeting, he or she must inform the Chairperson of the governing body as soon as it is reasonably practicable to do so.

10. Duty of members of governing body to adopt policy documents

(1) Members of the governing body must adopt-

(a) a constitution for such SGB;

(b) a mission statement of the public school, setting out the values and beliefs of the public school; and
