2. Requirements to be enrolled as a registered voter:

- 2.1 For the purposes of registration as set in the above timetable, a person who meets the requirements in terms of Regulation E1 or E2 should produce his/her green bar-coded South African identity document (or a valid temporary identity certificate) to enable the registration and the voting officer to determine the identity, age and citizenship of such a person.
- 2.2 A person who is registered to vote in a particular traditional community, as such, shall not be eligible to be registered (for voting purposes) under another traditional community. He/she will only cast his/her vote in the elections of the traditional community for which he/she is registered to vote only.

3. Requirements for candidates to contest the traditional council election:

- 3.1 A person who intends to contest in the traditional council elections may only do so if such person:
 - 3.1.1 Is nominated by a registered voter within the traditional council area in question and accepts such a nomination.
 - 3.1.2 produces written proof of the names, signatures and identity numbers of at least 50 registered voters within that traditional council area that have nominated him/her.
5. The Independent Electoral Commission, hereinafter referred to as IEC, has been appointed in terms of regulation H, Part III of the regulations to conduct the oncoming ballot elections and is also charged with voter registration and voter education in the above mentioned traditional communities.
6. The IEC shall have the powers contemplated under regulation I, Part III of the regulations to appoint the necessary staff in order to carry out their election mandate. However the remuneration of such election staff will be borne by the Department: Co-operative Governance, Human Settlement and Traditional Affairs in the Northern Cape Province.
7. Notice number 06, published on the 05th April 2012, in the Northern Cape Extraordinary Gazette number 1588, determining the date of the election to be from the 14th May 2012 to the 23rd May 2012, is hereby withdrawn.

8. Given under my hand at Kimberley on this 14th day of May 2012

ACTING PREMIER, Ms G.B Cjiekella
NORTHERN CAPE PROVINCE
