THAT the State reserved the right:
 1. To enter upon the land hereby granted and to sink for the public use and benefit, wells or boreholes within 300 yards of any existing road without compensation to the Proprietor, except for improvements on land so entered upon.
 2. To reserve or resume in connection with any such well or borehole:
 - (a) An extent of land falling within a radius of 47,23 metres around such well or borehole, and
 - (b) An approach thereto not exceeding 15,74 metres in width without compensation to the Proprietor except for improvements on the land so reserved or resumed.
5. The removal or suspension of the following restrictive or obsolete conditions, registered against the title deed (T5527/2005) of the Remaining Extent of Portion 2 (Doornvlei) of the farm Gamagara 541, Gamagara Local Municipality, Administrative District Kuruman, Northern Cape Province:
"D. The reservation of the following rights in favour of BRIDGEWAY RANCHES (PROPRIETARY) LIMITED:
 - I.(i) All trading rights upon and in respect of the aforementioned property are reserved to the Transferor and its Successors in Title, subject to the provisions of Paragraph B hereunder;
 - (ii) The exercise of the trading rights referred to in Paragraph (i) above shall be restricted to an area or areas which, in the aggregate, do not exceed 8.5653 hectares in extent and the determination of the area or areas shall take place in accordance with the following procedure -
 - (a) Existing sites upon which trading buildings are actually situate shall be demarcated and the boundaries outside the actual buildings shall be reasonably determined by the Transferee;
 - (b) As soon as the Transferee has prepared a plan of its proposed prospecting and mining development, as this affects the surface, it shall confer with the Transferor upon any further areas to be set aside for trading purposes and after such conference the areas in question shall be demarcated by agreement between the Transferor and the Transferee or, failing agreement, by the independent arbiter after mentioned;
 - (c) If the sites demarcated under (a) and (b) above are less than 8,5653 hectares for the reason that the Transferor has not desired the whole aggregate to be thus demarcated, then the Transferor may from time to time in the future request the setting aside of further sites (subject always to the condition that the maximum area shall be agreed upon between the transferor and Transferee or, failing agreement, determined by the independent arbiter after mentioned);
 - (d) If the Transferor shall consider the Transferee to have been unreasonable in its demarcation of any site under (a) above it may require the matter to be referred to the independent arbiter after mentioned;
 - (e) The independent arbiter shall be a person agreed upon between the parties, or failing agreement, nominated by the President for the time being of the Law Society of the Cape of Good Hope. He shall act as an expert and not as an arbitrator, shall decide the matter in such manner as he may consider appropriate and shall determine the sites accordingly, provided always that the provisions of paragraph (f) hereunder shall in all cases be observed;

- (f) Except in the case of existing trading buildings under paragraph (a), all the aforesaid sites, and the routes and boreholes referred to under paragraph (g) hereunder shall be chosen having regard to the reasonable needs of the Transferee in respect to prospecting and mining operations, including future operations upon further development in the light of the mineral resources available and as far as possible no site, route or borehole shall be chosen so as to interfere with any such operations or future operations or with the exploitation of underlying minerals;
 - (g) The holder of the trading rights shall have the right at all times to take electricity and a supply of water across the land hereby sold to the trading sites aforesaid, on the specific understanding that the routes to be determined for the conduct of water and electricity across such land, shall be determined by mutual consent or, failing that, by arbitration in the manner aforesaid. In addition the Transferor shall have the right to utilise boreholes presently being used in connection with existing trading sites and, in addition thereto, the Transferor shall have the right to put down such further or additional boreholes on the trading sites as may be required to provide water for domestic and trading purposes.
- II.(i) Nothing in the preceding paragraph A shall preclude the Transferee from carrying on (in addition to its prospecting and mining operations, the preparation of minerals, ores and products there from for sale and the sale thereof and activities ancillary thereto) the supply to its employees and their families resident upon the said property, such goods as are usually supplied by mines in similar circumstances, nor from establishing:-clubs, canteens and places of recreation and supplying to the frequenters thereof food, liquor, refreshments and other goods which are customarily supplied by such establishments;
- (ii) It is recorded that in regard to the existing trading buildings, tenants are carrying on the businesses of a butcher, cafe, ladies outfitters and general dealers and the rentals from these businesses accrue to the Transferor;
 - (iii) In the whole of this Clause B and the preceding Clause I the term "Transferor" includes its Successors in title to the trading rights and the term "Transferee" includes the Transferee's Successors in title to the property, so that the Transferor shall be entitled to grant in respect of the trading sites any rights of lease or other tenancy;
 - (iv) The trading buildings which may be erected on the trading sites may include residential accommodation for persons employed in the management thereof;
 - (v) It is agreed that the existing trading sites shall be regarded as forming part of the total area of 8.5653 hectares referred to in paragraph I. (ii) and that the Transferor shall not be required to demolish such buildings or to abandon any of such sites. The Transferee may, however, (subject to the payment of reasonable compensation) expropriate, on reasonable notice, any existing or future trading site and the buildings thereon, subject to -
 - (a) payment of reasonable compensation, or
 - (b) the provision of alternative trading site(s) and, where buildings are included, the provision of reasonably acceptable buildings on the alternative site(s)".

6. The amendment of an existing land use scheme by the rezoning of the consolidated site (to become Erf 723, Dingle) to Special Zone for mining as authorised in terms of the Mineral and Petroleum Resources Development Act, 2000 (Act 28 of 2002).

The application property is located in Dingle, directly west of the Sishen Mine and east of Gamagara Road.

The purpose of this application is to create a consolidated erf with a mining zoning to facilitate the Sishen Mine's expansion over the application properties.

A copy of the application and supporting documentation is available for viewing at the Municipal Offices, Cnr. Hendrik Van Eck & Frikkie Meyer Streets, Kathu at the office of Ms N Nkhanedzeni, Town Planning Manager (Room Nr 18/19) from Mondays to Thursdays between 7:30 to 13:00 and 13:45 to 16:30 and Fridays between 7:30 to 13:00 and 13:30 to 15:00.
