(3) Where an application is refused, the Board must furnish the unsuccessful applicant with written reasons for the refusal of such application.

(4) A bookmaker's licence may be issued to a natural person or a corporate body.

(5) A corporate body must nominate a natural person to represent it and such person is regarded as being the bookmaker for purposes of this Act: Provided that the corporate body is, at all times, jointly and severally liable for all the obligations imposed upon a bookmaker by this Act.

(6) A bookmaker's licence must specify –

- (a) the name of the person to whom the licence has been issued and, in the case of a corporate body, the name of the person contemplated in subsection (5) must also be specified on the licence;
