Rietfontein Farm was the site where the Boer Commander, General Joubert was based during the siege of Ladysmith. He had commandeered the main house belonging to Walter Pepworth, MPL, and ran the battle, as well as a military hospital from this position. The contemporary site bears witness to these bellicose memories, with its monuments and graves from this battle. In addition, the residential complex comprises houses of Boer, African and Victorian Heritage, which overlays the large number of sites constructed during pre-colonial settlement as well as a large Boer Graveyard that is not connected with the battle.

Any interested or affected person/party is invited to make written representations or submissions regarding the intended listing of the site, within 30 days of the publication of this notice, to:

Enquiries: The Chief Executive Officer
Amafa aKwazulu Natali
195 Langalibelele Street
Pietermaritzburg

Attention is drawn specifically to the provisions of Subsection 38 (1) and (2) of the KwaZulu Natal Heritage Act, Act No 4 of 2008, which provides:-

- (b) after due consideration of all written representations and submissions, confer the special protection of Heritage Landmark status on sites which, in the opinion of the Council, constitute important elements of the heritage of the Province, but which are not owned by the Provincial Government or a local authority, whereupon the Council must—*
- (i) in terms of section 37 (2), list the site in the Schedule; and*
