2. Minimum teaching hours per phase
3. General principles
4. Individual support plan and minimum teaching hours
5. Implementation dates
6. Short title

Definitions

1. In these regulations any word or expression to which a meaning has been assigned in the Act, has the same meaning assigned to it and unless the context otherwise indicates,—

“individual support plan” means a plan designed for learners who need additional support or expanded opportunities, developed by educators in consultation with the parents and the Institutional-level Support Team;

“teaching hours” means the amount of allocated time during which instruction is given in subjects, as prescribed in the National Curriculum Statement; and

“the Act” means the Western Cape Provincial School Education Act, 1997 (Act 12 of 1997).

Minimum teaching hours per phase

2. The minimum teaching hours per school week and school day in public schools per subject per phase are the following:

- (1) Foundation Phase (Grades R to 3):

(a) The minimum teaching hours for Grades R, 1 and 2 is 23 hours per week, and for Grade 3 is 25 hours per week.

(b) The minimum teaching hours per subject per week in the Foundation Phase are specified as follows:

SUBJECT	GRADE R (HOURS)	GRADES 1 & 2 (HOURS)	GRADE 3 (HOURS)
Home Language	10	8 or 7	8 or 7
First Additional Language		2 or 3	3 or 4
Mathematics	7	7	7
Life Skills	6	6	7

TOTAL	27.5

(c) (i) The allocated time per week should be used for the minimum required National Curriculum Statement subjects as specified above, and may not be used for any additional subjects added to the list of minimum subjects.

(ii) Should a learner wish to offer additional subjects, additional time must be allocated for the offering of those subjects.

General principles

3. (1) The time allocated to breaks, assemblies and extramural activities is excluded from the minimum teaching hours allocation.

(2) Additional time, either inside or outside of the prescribed minimum teaching hours, should be allocated to support learners who experience barriers to learning.

- (3) Should the governing body of a school decide to close the school early on certain days of the week in response to religious observances, arrangements should be made to ensure the minimum teaching hours per school week.
- (4) In the case of a learner who, with permission of the principal, regularly misses part of the school day for specific reasons, arrangements must be made between the learner, his or her parents and the school management team to ensure that the learner's required teaching and learning programme stays on track.

Individual support plans and minimum teaching hours

4. (1) The names of learners following individual support plans which deviate from the minimum teaching hours per school week per subject, and agreed to by the parents in writing, must be submitted by the principal to the District Director.
- (2) The District Director must be informed when such an individual support plan comes to an end and the learner follows the minimum teaching hours per school week per subject with his or her peers.

Implementation dates

5. The implementation dates for the minimum teaching hours per school week and school day are as follows:
 - (1) Grades R, 1, 2, 3 and 10 — 1 January 2012.
