Short title

7. This Act is called the Sectional Titles Amendment Act, 2005.

MEMORANDUM ON THE OBJECTS OF THE SECTIONAL TITLES AMENDMENT BILL, 2005

1. PURPOSE

The Sectional Titles Amendment Bill, 2005 (hereinafter referred to as “the Bill”), proposes certain amendments to the Sectional Titles Act, 1986 (Act No. 95 of 1986) (hereinafter referred to as “the Act”).

2. OBJECTS OF THE BILL

2.1 Clause 1 of the Bill proposes certain consequential amendments to the definitions of “Chief Surveyor-General” and “Surveyor-General” as a result of the repeal of the Land Survey Act, 1927 (Act No. 9 of 1927). It also seeks to amend the definition of “sectional mortgage bond” to align the periods for registered and unregistered leases or sub-leases.

2.2.1 Section 15B(1)(c) empowers a registrar of deeds to register a sectional mortgage bond by which a unit, undivided share in a unit, land held under a sectional title deed, registered lease or sub-lease, undivided share in a unit or land, registered real right or undivided share in a unit or land, is hypothecated when a sectional title register has been opened and the sectional plan has been registered. Clause 2(a) of the Bill proposes that this power also be extended to exclusive use areas.

2.2.2 Section 15B(5) of the Act grants the joint owner of a unit the right to apply to the registrar of deeds for a certificate of registered sectional title in respect of such owner’s undivided share in the unit. Clause 2(b) of the Bill proposes that this right also be extended to the joint holder of a right to an exclusive use area or a right referred to in section 25(1) of the Act. It is also proposed that joint owners may either apply for a registered sectional title or a certificate of real right.

2.3.1 Section 26(1) of the Act empowers the body corporate to purchase land to extend the common property. Clause 3(a) of the Bill seeks to empower the body corporate to also acquire land otherwise, for example, by donation, exchange or bequest. The land acquired in terms of subsection (1) must be registered in the name of the body corporate.

2.3.2 The proposal in clause 3(b) of the Bill for the amendment of section 26(2) of the Act, is a consequential amendment pursuant to the amendment of section 26(1) of the Act.

2.4 Section 36(2) of the Act disqualifies a developer or the owner of a unit in a scheme to be a member of a body corporate, if the developer ceases to have a share in the common property and the owner ceases to be the owner of a unit. The proviso contradicts the preceding provisions and also creates legal uncertainty pertaining to membership of the body corporate. It is, therefore, proposed that the proviso be deleted.

2.5.1 Section 37 of the Act provides for the levying of contributions. In terms of section 37(2) levies accrue from the passing of a resolution by the trustees of the body corporate and the persons who were owners of units at the time the resolution was passed, are liable for the payment thereof. The addition of the proviso to this subsection as proposed in clause 5(a) of the Bill, seeks to give clarity on the question pertaining to the payment of levies in cases where ownership changes.

2.5.2 Section 37 of the Act does not specifically provide for the levying of special contributions. Over the years the levying of special contributions for specific special purposes has become a general phenomenon. The proposed amendment by clause 5(b) of the Bill, merely confirms a situation which has existed for a considerable number of years.

2.6 The proposal in clause 6 of the Bill seeks to rectify the present legal situation.

2.7 Clause 7 of the Bill contains the short title.

3. FINANCIAL IMPLICATIONS FOR STATE

None.

4. ORGANISATIONS CONSULTED

The Law Society of South Africa

The South African Council for Architectural Profession

The South African Council for Professional and Technical Surveyors

The Banking Council of South Africa

The Institute of Estate Agents of South Africa

5. CONSTITUTIONAL IMPLICATIONS

There are no known constitutional implications.

6. COMMUNICATION IMPLICATIONS

To be undertaken by the Department of Land Affairs.

7. PARLIAMENTARY PROCEDURE

The State Law Advisers and the Department of Land Affairs are of the opinion that this Bill must be dealt with in accordance with the procedure established by section 75 of the Constitution since it contains no provision to which the procedure set out in section 74 or section 76 of the Constitution applies.

NOTICE 740 OF 2005INTERNATIONAL TRADE ADMINISTRATION COMMISSION
OF SOUTH AFRICACUSTOMS AND EXCISE TARIFF APPLICATIONS*LIST 5/2005

The International Trade Administration Commission of South Africa (ITAC) has received the following application concerning the Customs and Excise Tariff. Any objection to or comment on this representation should be submitted to the Chief Commissioner, ITAC, Private Bag X753, Pretoria, 0001, within six weeks of the date of this notice. Attention is drawn to the fact that the rate of duty mentioned in the application is that requested by the applicant and that the Commission may, depending on its findings, recommend a lower or higher rate of duty.

CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

Please note that if any information is considered to be confidential then a non-confidential version of the information must be submitted, simultaneously with the confidential version. In submitting a non-confidential version the following rules are strictly applicable and parties must indicate:

- Where confidential information has been omitted and the nature of such information;*
- A summary of the confidential information which permits a reasonable understanding of the substance of the confidential information; and*
- In exceptional cases, where information is not susceptible to summary, reasons must be submitted to this effect.*

This rule applies to all parties and to all correspondence with and submissions to the Commission, which unless indicated to be confidential and filed together with a non-confidential version, will be made available to other interested parties.

If a party considers that any document of another party, on which that party is submitting representations, does not comply with the above rules and that such deficiency affects that party's ability to make meaningful representations, the details of the deficiency and the reasons why that party's rights are so affected must be submitted to the commission in writing forthwith (and at the latest 14 days prior to the date on which that party's submission is due). Failure to do so timeously will seriously hamper the proper administration of the investigation, and such party will not be able to subsequently claim an inability to make meaningful representations on the basis of the failure of such other party to meet the requirements.
