- (5) Council is entitled to suspend any member if it deems such suspension appropriate under the circumstances.

Chairperson and vice chairperson

10. (1) At the first meeting of council, and thereafter whenever it becomes necessary, the members of council elect from the members, who are not employees or students of the University, a chairperson and a vice chairperson who each holds office for a period of two years, or for such shorter period as they each may be a member of council.
- (2) The chairperson and vice chairperson are eligible for re-election.
 - (3) Nominations for the office of chairperson and vice chairperson of council must be addressed to the secretary of council in writing.
 - (4) If more than one candidate for each position is nominated, voting is by secret ballot as contemplated in paragraph 14 of this Statute.
 - (5) A chairperson or vice chairperson of council must be elected by a majority of all the members present at the meeting of council.

- (6) (a) Whenever a vacancy occurs in the office of chairperson or vice chairperson, the provisions of subparagraphs (3) to (5) apply with the necessary changes to the filling of such vacancy.
- (b) A person elected in terms of subparagraph (a) to fill a casual vacancy holds office for the unexpired period of his or her predecessor's term of office.

Secretary

11. (1) The secretary of council and its committees is the registrar, provided that the principal and vice chancellor may assign any other employee to assist the secretary or to act as secretary.
- (2) The secretary acts as electoral officer at all meetings of council and its committees.
- (3) The secretary attends all meetings of council and its committees.
- (4) The secretary has no vote in decisions of council.

Meetings

12. (1) The chairperson must during each calendar year convene at least four meetings of council.
- (2) A quorum consists of at least 50 per cent of the total number of members of council of whom more than 50 per cent of those present are not employees and students of the University.
- (3) If there is no quorum the meeting adjourns and another meeting is scheduled.
- (4) An agenda with the supporting documentation must be submitted to the members of council at least seven days before the meeting, provided that, with the consent of the chairperson, a member may raise urgent matters at the meeting without prior notice.
- (5) With the permission of council, a person with observer status may take part in the debates of council but may not vote.
- (6) Council may, from time to time, invite any person or persons to attend a council meeting to provide advice as may be required.

Extraordinary meetings

13. (1) The chairperson of council may call, or council may resolve to call, an extraordinary meeting of council after at least seven days' notice, and the chairperson must call such meeting when requested in writing to do so by any ten members of council, provided that at least three of such members are not employees or students of the University, and the object of the meeting is stated clearly in the request.
- (2) No matters other than those appearing on the agenda of the meeting may be dealt with at such a meeting, except with the unanimous consent of the meeting.

Voting

14. (1) Except where otherwise provided in this statute, all matters are decided by a majority of members present.
- (2) The chairperson has an ordinary vote and a casting vote.
- (3) Council decides by a majority of members present when a secret ballot must be conducted and in any vote where there is no majority, the chairperson has the casting vote.
- (4) If members present during any vote on a motion abstain from voting, their abstentions may be minuted if required by such members.
- (5) If the meeting so decides, the number of members voting for or against or abstaining on any motion must be recorded.
- (6) Each member of council has only one vote during a ballot and no proxy is allowed.
- (7) Where no less than 70 per cent of all the members of council have agreed on a matter referred to them by the chairperson by letter, mail, telefax or electronic mail without a meeting having been convened, and have conveyed their resolution by letter, mail, telefax or electronic mail, such resolution is deemed to be a resolution of council and must be recorded in the minutes of the next ordinary meeting.

- (8) If a member of council is unable to attend a meeting, his or her views on any matter on the agenda may be communicated to the secretary of council in writing, but may not count as a vote by such a member.

Ruling by chairperson

15. (1) The ruling of the chairperson on any point of order or procedure is binding unless immediately challenged by a member, in which event such ruling shall be submitted without discussion to the meeting for a vote.
- (2) The outcome of such vote is final.

Minutes of council and executive committee meetings

16. (1) The secretary of council keeps the minutes of each meeting of council and includes such minutes in the agenda of the next council meeting, which is sent out in terms of paragraph 12(3).
- (2) At each meeting of council, the minutes of the last preceding meeting and of any extraordinary meeting held subsequently are read and must be approved and signed by the chairperson.
- (3) An objection to the minutes must be raised and dealt with before the minutes can be approved.
- (4) The meeting may take the minutes as read if a copy was sent to each member in accordance with subparagraph (1).
- (5) A report of the executive committee meeting and of all other council committee meetings must be submitted to council at its next meeting.

Register of resolutions of council

17. The secretary of council keeps a complete register of the resolutions of council and of its executive committee, and any interested person or body who submits a request showing reasonable grounds and which is in accordance with the applicable institutional rule or policy, may inspect such resolutions.

Drafting or amending statute or rule

18. (1) Any motion to draft or amend the statute or a rule must be in accordance with the provisions of section 32(2) of the Act.
- (2) No motion to draft or amend the Statute or a rule is of force and effect unless adopted by a majority of the members present at the meeting, provided that not less than 50 per cent of the total number of members is present at the meeting.

Financial and other interests of members

19. (1) Any member of council or of a committee of council who has a direct financial or personal interest in any matter to be discussed at a meeting must, before or during such meeting, declare his or her interest on becoming aware of it.
- (2) If a member of council participates without council's permission in proceedings of council or a committee of council in a matter in which he or she has a financial or personal interest, voting by council or a committee of council on such a matter is invalid.
- (3) Before any meeting, any member of the University community has the right to inform the chairperson in writing, of any possible conflict of interest in respect of any member of council or a committee of council.
- (4) After a declaration or finding that a conflict of interest exists, the member of council or a committee of council must excuse him or herself from the meeting before the matter is discussed.

 - (d) corporate systems.
- (4) The principal and vice chancellor reports to council.

- (5) The principal and vice chancellor is a member of all committees of council and senate, unless council decides otherwise.
- (6) Council may grant additional duties and powers to the principal and vice chancellor to enable him or her to perform his or her functions.

Term of office

49. (1) The principal and vice chancellor is appointed for a period of five years and may be re-appointed for one further term or part thereof.
- (2) The principal and vice chancellor is appointed on the conditions of service determined by council.

Selection and appointment

50. (1) At least six months before the retirement of the principal and vice chancellor or, if the office becomes vacant for any reason, within fourteen days of the occurrence of the vacancy, the secretary of council must give notice of the vacancy to every member of council and to the chairperson of the institutional forum.
- (2) Council must appoint a selection committee and instruct it to liaise with the institutional forum for advice on the filling of the position.
- (3) The composition of the selection committee will be determined by council and takes charge of the selection and appointment process.
- (4) The selection committee, after consulting with senate and the institutional forum, submits the procedure for filling of the position of the principal and vice chancellor to council for approval.
- (5) The selection committee submits a draft advertisement of the position of the principal and vice chancellor to council for approval, before continuing with the process of the filling of the position.
- (6) After the advertisement, the selection committee shortlists not more than five candidates and forwards the names and curricula vitae of the short-listed candidates to senate and the institutional forum for their advice or recommendations.

- (7) After receiving advice or recommendations from senate and the institutional forum, the selection committee interviews the shortlisted candidates and recommends to council not more than three candidates it found suitable for appointment to the office of principal and vice chancellor, provided that the names of the other shortlisted candidates and all other applicants are also submitted to council.
- (8) (a) At a meeting, attended by at least 75 per cent of all its members, council considers the recommendations of the selection committee and if required votes by secret ballot on the appointment of one of the recommended candidates to the office of principal and vice chancellor.
- (b) In the event of a vote the candidate with an absolute majority is appointed as principal and vice chancellor.
- (c) If no candidate obtains an absolute majority, council may either decide to start the process afresh or to eliminate the candidate with the least number of votes and vote on the remaining two candidates.
- (d) The candidate who then obtains a majority is appointed as principal and vice chancellor.

Acting vice chancellor

51. (1) When the principal and vice chancellor is absent or unable to carry out his or her duties, he or she appoints an acting vice chancellor.
- (2) An acting vice chancellor has all the powers, duties and functions of the principal and vice chancellor on the understanding that he or she may not change existing policy unless with the approval of the executive committee of council.

OTHER SENIOR MANAGEMENT POSITIONS

52. (1) The functions allocated to other senior management positions are determined by the principal and vice chancellor.
- (2) The terms of office of other senior management positions are determined by council.

- (3) The procedure for the selection and appointment of the principal and vice chancellor applies with the necessary changes to the filling of other senior management positions.
- (4) When a senior management member is absent or unable to perform his or her duties, the principal and vice chancellor appoints an official to perform these duties.
