Requirements for sealing, addressing, delivery, opening and assessment of tenders are stated in the Tender Data.

DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

INVITES TO EXPRESS INTEREST – BID Number: EDO 384

e-EDUCATION INITIATIVE

The Department of Education has identified the need to investigate the feasibility and affordability of implementing e-Education through different models. Through this process, the Department of Education will identify the best technical, financial and legal solution in implementing the e-Education Initiative.

The Department has completed a needs analysis which defines a detailed set of needs for the Department of Education to be able to deliver its core services effectively in the areas of Public Schools and FET Colleges, namely:

- Providing all Learners Access to Quality Education.
- Building Educators' Capacity to Teach Effectively; and
- Enhancing Logistics and Operations.

The department has now commenced with the solution options analysis phase of the feasibility study. The purpose of this phase is to analyse the range of possible technical, legal and financial options for achieving the e-Education Initiative's objectives, as set out in the e-Education White Paper.

The Department is considering various solution options for implementing e-Education, and calls for interested parties to submit an Expression of Interest.

The purpose of this Expression of Interest is to obtain information in respect of the range of relevant services and products that are or will be available in the private and not-for-profit sectors, as well as to access market appetite and capability in respect of the e-Education Initiative.

If the e-Education Initiative is deemed to be feasible, a competitive bid will follow.

Interested parties are hereby invited to submit a non-binding Expression of Interest, indicating their:

- Business credentials.
- Service/product offering.
- Socio-economic information.

The Expression of Interest document is available, at no cost, from Room 300, 3rd Floor.

Any queries regarding the Expression of Interest must be directed in writing via e-mail or fax to.

Any interested party requiring clarification on any matter whatsoever, must request such clarity in writing addressed to KPMG, as follows:

Ms Jacqueline Burger, Subject: e-Education Initiative—Expression of Interest, Fax No. (012) 431-1301. E-mail: Jacqueline.burger@kpmg.co.za

Interested parties are advised that they should not contact any other of the Department of Education's officials or any of the Transaction Advisor on any matter related to this e-Education Initiative. Should any correspondence be received by any such persons, it will not be answered by the recipient but will be referred directly to the Official Project Representative for attention.

Submissions of responses must be hand delivered on or before 12:00 noon on Monday, 10 December 2007 at the following physical address:

Sol Plaatje House (Tender Box), 123 Schoeman Street, Pretoria, 0001.

Late submissions will not be considered for review.
