NOTICE 814 OF 2008

INTERNATIONAL TRADE ADMINISTRATION COMMISSION OF SOUTH AFRICA

DECISION BY THE COMMISSION TO RESCIND ITS DECISION TO INITIATE SUNSET REVIEW OF THE ANTI-DUMPING DUTIES ON WHITE UNCOATED WOODFREE A4 PAPER ORIGINATING IN OR IMPORTED FROM BRAZIL AND INDONESIA

Anti-dumping duties on uncoated woodfree A4 paper imported from Brazil and Indonesia was imposed by SARS on 28 May 1999 with retrospective effect to 27 November 1998.

The Commission formally initiated a sunset review of the anti-dumping duties on uncoated woodfree A4 paper originating in or imported from Brazil and Indonesia on 2 April 2004.

In accordance with the provisions of Sub-Part IV of the Anti-Dumping Regulations and Article 11.3 of the World Trade Organisation Agreement on the Implementation of Article VI of the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade 1994 (the "Anti-dumping Agreement"), any definitive anti-dumping duty shall be terminated on a date not later than five years from the date of imposition, unless the authorities determine, in a review initiated before that date on their own initiative or upon a duly substantiated request made by or on behalf of the domestic industry within a reasonable period of time prior to that date, that the expiry of the duty would likely lead to the continuation or recurrence of dumping and injury.

In terms of the WTO Anti-dumping Agreement and the Anti-dumping Regulations, the initiation of any sunset review must occur prior to the expiry of the aforementioned five-year period to keep the anti-dumping duty in force beyond the period of five years.

In the case of Progress Office Machines versus SARS, ITAC and others that was heard in the Supreme Court of Appeal (SCA) on 26 September 2007, the SCA decided that the anti-dumping duty was "imposed" on 27 November 1998 and therefore the ruling of the SCA was that the anti-dumping duty on A4 paper from Brazil and Indonesia had no force and effect as of 27 November 2003. In terms of this judgment the anti-dumping duties were withdrawn by SARS on 4 June 2008 with retrospective effect to 27 November 2003.

On 10 June 2008, the Commission, in accordance with section 48(c), made a decision to rescind its decision to initiate the sunset review investigation of the anti-dumping duties on white uncoated woodfree A4 paper originating in or imported from Brazil and Indonesia.

The Commission's detailed reasons for its decision are set out in Commission Report No. 260.

Enquiries may be directed to the investigating officers, Ms Carina Janse van Vuuren at telephone (012) 394 3594 and Ms Niki Kruger at (012) 394 3707, or at fax (012) 395 0518.
