Research organisations are invited to submit proposals to conduct a Labour Market Analysis in the Food and Beverage Manufacturing Sector. FoodBev SETA requires a labour market analysis to be conducted in order to identify occupations where a scarcity of skills is experienced, and to develop a Sector Skills Plan which forms the basis for prioritising skills development interventions in the Food and Beverage sector.

General requirements for the submission of proposals:

- The Terms of Reference and RFP template are available from the FoodBev SETA offices and can be obtained from the FoodBev SETA website (www.foodbev.co.za);
- Proposals must be clearly marked with Reference No. 009/002;
- Proposals must contain a brief company profile and demonstrate organisational capability, employment equity, black economic empowerment, delivery capacity on a national and/or regional level, as well as a comprehensive costing analysis;
- Criteria for the evaluation of proposals will include, but not be limited to, expertise of the service provider, experience in the delivery of similar projects, quality and cost;
- FoodBev SETA subscribes to the principles of black economic empowerment and employment equity.

Project objectives and deliverables:

The project will follow specific objectives, namely, to—

(a) Update research conducted in previous years on:

- Factors that impact the sector (economic, environmental, legislative, social, policy) and the influence of these on the labour market and, more specifically, skills needs;
- An analysis of education/training supply and demand, and the implications for skills development.

[Research under (a) above requires an update of existing research through “desktop” research—sources such as SSA, DTI, company annual reports]

(b) Aggregation on scarce skills data—data extrapolated from company Workplace Skills Plans. Aggregated and provided by FoodBev SETA.

(c) Validating the finding with key stakeholders in the sector, through focus group discussions with the Sector Skills Plan Committee.

(d) Draft strategies for skills development in consultation with key sector stakeholders—Sector Skills Plan Committee.

Date: 20 June 2008.

Time: 12h00.
