PURPOSE AND RATIONALE OF THE QUALIFICATION

Purpose:

This qualification enables learners to develop towards becoming professional hairdressers. This is the first of three qualifications which culminate in a professional hairdressing qualification. This Qualification is designed to serve as an introduction to the hairdressing industry and provide the learner with the basics of hairdressing. In particular, the NQF Level 2 qualification should result in the learner becoming a competent Operator, capable of:

- > Operating safely within the salon environment.
- > Maintaining professional standards of hygiene and image.
- > Completing straightforward hairdressing services, such as shampooing and conditioning, unsupervised.
- > Competently assisting the professional stylist with more complex services.

The elective unit standards provide for a wide range of possible areas of focus from providing an early opportunity to tackle units standards such as dreadlocks and braiding which are core unit standards at later levels, through some computer-oriented unit standards on email, the internet and word-processing, to more specialised salon areas such as advanced massage.

Rationale:

Job market entrants often have little or no exposure to generic hairdressing or self-management and therefore often fail to make a success of a career in hairdressing.

Central to the rationale for this Qualification is the development of a culture of professionalism and service excellence in the hairdressing industry. This Qualification will provide for breadth and flexibility to match the needs of the learners, employers and industry as a whole. It will give the learners the key skills essential to be able to function effectively as flexible, adaptable and competitive hairdressers and for a lifelong career in hairdressing. These skills will make the learners employable and they will be able to make effective contributions to the hairdressing business by being able to apply the acquired knowledge and skills.

The qualification allows a successful learner to follow a career in such occupations as:

- > Hair Salon Practitioner.
- > Hair Stylist.
- > Hairdresser Consultant.
- > Junior Hairdresser.
- > Image and Department Advisor.
- > Store Merchandiser.
- > Promotions.
- > Retail Trade.
- > Sales.
- > Junior Receptionist.
- > Stock Controller.
- > Cashier.

INTERNATIONAL COMPARABILITY

International comparisons were chosen to span a variety of requirements:

- > Fashion: Since this is a subject area at the heart of the fashion industry, it was necessary to cover countries which could be regarded as fashion leaders.
- > Education and training: Countries with developed education and training capabilities were the subject of particular focus.
- > Africa: An attempt was made to focus on countries in the African context, despite significant difficulties encountered in sourcing suitable information.

Benchmarking was done by comparison to Qualifications, Unit Standards and Outcomes of learning. This exercise established the following:

New Zealand:

Existing qualifications:

- > National Certificate in Hairdressing (Salon Support), Level 2.
- > National Certificate in Barbering, Level 3.
- > National Certificate in Hairdressing with strands in Hairdressing Practice, and Barbering Practice, Level 4.
- > National Certificate in Hairdressing (Management), Level 5, with strands in Assessment of Hairdressing, Tutoring in Hairdressing, and Salon Management.

Comparative information:

- > The scope of each unit was small, leading to the development of a large number of units; for example the colouring of hair was covered in 7 units, separating temporary, semi-permanent, permanent hair colouring, bleaching and colour correction from one another.

- > Similarly, styling was divided into elementary and complex levels.
- > Performance under workplace conditions was assessed separately and at Level 5.

England and Scotland:

Existing qualifications:

- > NVQ Hairdressing Levels 1, 2 and 3.
- > SVQ hairdressing Levels 1, 2 and 3.

Comparative information:

- > Level 1 is treated as training for the role of an assistant to qualified personnel, limiting its content.
- > Perming is separated into 2 parts, the first part (in Level 2) combined with relaxing.
- > Long hair styling and thermal styling are only covered in Level 3.

Australia:

Existing qualifications:

Australian National Training Authority:

- > WRH20100 certificate II in hairdressing.
- > WRH30100 certificate III in hairdressing.
- > WRH40100 certificate IV IN hairdressing.
- > WRH50100 Diploma of Hairdressing Salon Management.

Comparative information:

- > Level 4 is used entirely for specialist options (e.g. design, colour, wigs, extensions, shaving, manicure and pedicure, make-up etc), rather than incorporating options in the other levels.
- > All styling is covered in Level 3.
- > All management topics are optional in the first 3 levels.
- > A separate Diploma level is created which focuses on management and business planning.

Botswana:

Existing qualifications:

Unit Standards on Levels 1, 2 and 3.

Comparative information:

- > The Botswana Training Authority have a series of Unit Standards, allocated to levels, but no full qualifications.
- > Level 1 is restricted to a knowledge of retailing, hairdressing tools and equipment and hairdressing products; the only practical component is the practice of hygiene and safety.
- > Level 2 contains all the colour Unit Standards.
- > Cutting, relaxing and perming are all positioned at Level 3.

Namibia:

Existing qualifications.

Namibia Vocational Qualification (NVQ): Hairdressing Level 1, 2, 3 and 4.

Comparative information:

- > Level 1 focuses on client preparation and general support functions and contains little hands-on client work.
- > Level 2 includes dreadlock techniques, but omits relaxing, which is put into Level 3.
- > Level 4 mainly focuses on management functions and includes some design skills.

Conclusion:

The South African qualifications incorporate the best elements of the fashion leaders of western culture whilst maintaining a distinctly African focus. In this way, these qualifications are designed to recognise and accelerate the transformation in the hairdressing industry that began with a move away from a Caucasian focus and towards the first generic hairdressing qualifications.

PURPOSE AND RATIONALE OF THE QUALIFICATIONPurpose:

This qualification follows on from the NQF Level 3 qualification in enabling learners to qualify as professional hairdressers. This Qualification, registered at NQF Level 4, focuses on advanced hairdressing techniques such as perming, advanced colouring and braiding and dreadlocks as well as on a series of management functions designed to assist qualified hairdressers to set up and manage their own businesses. This is a sector in which a very large number of skilled professionals set up their own businesses at some point during their career, and a significant number do so immediately after completing their qualification.

Rationale:

Job market entrants often have little or no exposure to generic hairdressing or self-management and therefore fail to make a success of a career in hairdressing.

Central to the rationale for this Qualification is the development of a culture of professionalism and service excellence in the hairdressing industry. This Qualification will provide for breadth and flexibility to match the needs of the learners, employers and industry as a whole. It will give the learners the key skills essential to be able to function effectively as flexible, adaptable and competitive hairdressers and for a lifelong career in hairdressing, as well as offering them skills in setting up and managing their own salons. These skills will make the learners employable and/or self-employable and they will be able to make effective contributions to the hairdressing business by being able to apply the acquired knowledge and skills.

The qualification allows a successful learner to follow a career in such occupations as:

> Hairdressing Salon Management.

- > Hair Salon Practitioner.
- > Hair Stylist.
- > Barber.
- > Hairdresser Consultant and Advisor.
- > Image and Department Advisor.
- > Marketing Assistant.
- > Retail and Wholesale Trade.
- > Senior Sales Assistant.
- > Senior Receptionist.
- > Stock Controller.
- > Cashiering Supervision.

It is compulsory therefore for learners to do Communication in two different South African languages, one at NQF Level 4 and the other at Level 3.

All Unit Standards in the Fundamental Component are compulsory.

Core Component:

The Core Component consists of Unit Standards to the value of 71 credits all of which are compulsory.

INTERNATIONAL COMPARABILITY

International comparisons were chosen to span a variety of requirements:

- > Fashion: Since this is a subject area at the heart of the fashion industry, it was necessary to cover countries which could be regarded as fashion leaders.
- > Education and Training: Countries with developed education and training capabilities were the subject of particular focus.
- > Africa: An attempt was made to focus on countries in the African context, despite significant difficulties encountered in sourcing suitable information.

Benchmarking was done by comparison to Qualifications, Unit Standards and Outcomes of learning. This exercise established the following:

New Zealand:

Existing qualifications:

- > National Certificate in Hairdressing (Salon Support), Level 2.
- > National Certificate in Barbering, Level 3.
- > National Certificate in Hairdressing with strands in Hairdressing Practice, and Barbering Practice, Level 4.
- > National Certificate in Hairdressing (Management), Level 5, with strands in Assessment of Hairdressing, Tutoring in Hairdressing, and Salon Management.

Comparative information:

- > The scope of each unit was small, leading to the development of a large number of units, for example the colouring of hair was covered in 7 units, separating temporary, semi-permanent, permanent hair colouring, bleaching and colour correction from one another.
- > Similarly, styling was divided into elementary and complex levels.
- > Performance under workplace conditions was assessed separately and at Level 5.

England and Scotland:

Existing qualifications:

- > NVQ: Hairdressing Levels 1, 2 and 3.
- > SVQ: Hairdressing Levels 1, 2 and 3.

Comparative information:

- > Level 1 is treated as training for the role of an assistant to qualified personnel, limiting its content.
- > Perming is separated into 2 parts, the first part (in Level 2) combined with relaxing.
- > Long hair styling and thermal styling are only covered in Level 3.

Australia:

Existing qualifications:

Australian National Training Authority:

- > WRH20100: Certificate II in Hairdressing.
- > WRH30100: Certificate III in Hairdressing.
- > WRH40100: Certificate IV in Hairdressing.
- > WRH50100: Diploma of Hairdressing Salon Management.

Comparative information:

- > Level 4 is used entirely for specialist options (e.g. design, colour, wigs, extensions, shaving, manicure and pedicure, make-up etc), rather than incorporating options in the other levels.
- > All styling is covered in Level 3.
- > All management topics are optional in the first 3 Levels.
- > A separate Diploma level is created which focuses on management and business planning.

Botswana:

Existing qualifications:

Unit Standards on Levels 1, 2 and 3.

Comparative information:

- > The Botswana Training Authority has a series of Unit Standards, allocated to levels, but no full qualifications.
- > Level 1 is restricted to a knowledge of retailing, hairdressing tools and equipment and hairdressing products, the only practical component is the practice of hygiene and safety.
- > Level 2 contains all the colour Unit Standards.
- > Cutting, relaxing and perming are all positioned at Level 3.

Namibia:

Existing qualifications:

Namibia Vocational Qualification (NVQ): Hairdressing Level 1, 2, 3 and 4.

Comparative information:

- > Level 1 focuses on client preparation and general support functions and contains little hands-on client work.
- > Level 2 includes dreadlock techniques, but omits relaxing, which is put into Level 3.

> Level 4 mainly focuses on management functions and includes some design skills.

Conclusion:

The South African qualifications incorporate the best elements of the fashion leaders of western culture whilst maintaining a distinctly African focus. This has led, amongst other things, to:

> Recognising that today's South African hair stylists must be equally skilled in Caucasian and Afro hair techniques, by placing hair braiding and dreadlock techniques as a core Unit Standard in Level 4.

> Recognising the South African priority of building the capacity of small business, coupled with the reality that many hairdressers are compelled to make their own jobs through building their own businesses, by including more business and management components as core Level 4 Unit Standards than is customary in the qualifications of advanced western countries.

In this way, these qualifications are designed to recognise and accelerate the transformation in the hairdressing industry that began with a move away from a Caucasian focus and towards the first generic hairdressing qualifications.
