"Resolved that the maximum remuneration of the non-executive directors of the Company for the years ending 30 June 2012 and 30 June 2013 be approved, as follows:

	30 June 2012	30 June 2013

Committees
Audit committee: Chair	R125 800	R133 000

Other committees: Chair	R105 000	R111 000
Other committees: Member	R58 000	R62 000

Special Resolution 2 - Approval of financial assistance

"Resolved that the board may authorise the Company to generally provide any direct or indirect financial assistance, in the manner contemplated in and subject to the provisions of sections 44 and 45 of the Act, to a related or inter-related company or corporation, to a member of a related or inter-related corporation or to any other person related to the Company or any such related or inter-related company or corporation."

The reason for Special Resolution 2 is to approve generally the provision of financial assistance by the Company to the potential recipients as set out in the resolution, in particular to the Company's subsidiaries and other entities controlled by it.

Special Resolution 3 - Amendment of memorandum of incorporation

"Resolved that the memorandum of incorporation of the Company is hereby amended as follows:

1 Article 30.2 is amended by adding the phrase "provided that the majority of the board shall at all times be non-executive directors" at the end of that article.

2 A new article 30.2A is inserted after the existing article 30.2 to read as follows:

"30.2A The directors shall be entitled to elect the chairperson of the board by majority vote, provided that the chairperson must be one of the non-executive directors."

3 Article 38.8 of the memorandum of incorporation is amended by inserting the word "not" before the phrase "have a second or casting vote".

4 Articles 46.3, 46.4, 46.5 and 46.6 of the memorandum of incorporation of the Company are deleted in their entirety."

The reason for Special Resolution 3 is to amend the memorandum of incorporation to further ensure good corporate governance at the Company in line with the recommendations of the King III Report for Governance in South Africa, and to remove the conflicts between article 46 and the provisions of sections 31(1) and 62(3) of the Act. These sections of the Act prescribe methods by which shareholders, as well as holders of beneficial interests in shares, are to be notified of the publication of a company's annual financial statements and set out the relevant details to be included in a company's notice of annual general meeting.

Special Resolution 4 - General authority to issue ordinary shares

"Resolved that the board be authorised, for a period until the earlier of the expiry of two years following the passing of this resolution and the date of listing of the Company, to issue any number of authorised but unissued ordinary shares in the company to one or more strategic investors and, in the period leading up to and including the proposed listing of the company, for the placement of shares with institutional investors, at such subscription prices and on such further terms and conditions as the directors in their discretion deem fit."

The possibility of the investment by institutional investors in the Company has been provided for in the scheme document for the demutualisation of Assupol Life. Special Resolution 4 is required, in terms of section 41(3) of the Act, in order to enable the board of directors of the Company to issue ordinary shares to new investors, to the extent that any such share issue exceeds to 30% threshold stipulated in section 41(3) of the Act.

Special Resolution 5 - Authorisation of new share class for BEE shareholders

"Resolved that the authorised shares of the company be increased by 200 000 000 "A" ordinary redeemable no par value shares and that the memorandum of incorporation of the company is amended by inserting the following article 57 in the memorandum of incorporation after the existing article 56:

Notional Date), regardless of whether the redemption was initiated by the Company or requested by the Subscriber in terms of article 57.14;

57.1.17 "Subscriber" means a person who subscribes for, and becomes the holder of, A Shares;

DA = the Distributable Amount as at the relevant Dividend Date;

O = the total number of ordinary shares and preference shares contemplated in article 56 (if any) in issue;

57.1.24.2 otherwise, the value per ordinary share as determined by the external auditors of the Company, who shall act as experts (not arbitrators) and whose decision shall be final and binding on the Company.

Issue of A Shares

57.2 The board of directors shall be entitled from time to time to issue A Shares to Subscribers at such Trickle Price and/or Notional Amount as they may deem fit. It is recorded for the purposes of clarity that the board of directors shall have the power to:

57.2.1 issue A Shares at the minimum issue price of R0.01, in which case: (i) the Notional Amount attached to such A Shares shall be determined with reference to the fact that no Trickle Price has been paid; and (ii) the relevant A Shares shall not be entitled to any Trickle Dividend; or 57.2.2 issue A Shares at a Trickle Price, in which case: (i) the Notional Amount attached to such A Shares shall be determined with reference to the amount of the Trickle Price that has been paid; and (ii) the relevant A Shares shall be entitled to Trickle Dividends.

57.3 The rights attaching to each tranche of A Shares shall be determined with reference to the Notional Amount, Trickle Price (If any), Notional Date, Commitment Date and Notional Rate applicable to that tranche of A Shares, as reflected in the relevant Directors' Determination made in respect of each issue.

57.4 If the board's power in terms of section 36(3) of the Act is at any time removed or restricted in terms of this memorandum of incorporation, such removal or restriction shall not apply in respect of the board's ability to make a Directors' Determination in respect of the A Shares unless the relevant article specifically and expressly states that the board's power in terms of this article 57 is equally removed or restricted.

57.5 A Shares with the same Notional Amount, Trickle Price (if any), Notional Date, Commitment Date and Notional Rate shall form part of the same class. Each class of A Shares issued in terms of this article 57 shall be distinct from the other and designated as "A1", "A2", "A3" and so forth. All share certificates issued in respect of a class of A Shares shall be marked accordingly and the securities register shall equally record which sub-class of A Share has been issued to each Subscriber.

Voting Rights

57.6 Each A Share shall, before and after the Participation Date, entitle the holder thereof to cast one vote on every matter in respect of which the ordinary shareholders of the Company is entitled to vote.

57.7 The A Shares and the ordinary shares rank pari passu in all respects insofar as voting rights are concerned.

Limited Dividend Rights until Participation Date

57.8 An A Share in respect of which a Trickle Price was paid shall, on each Dividend Date occurring before the Participation Date of that A Share, be entitled to a Trickle Dividend.

57.9 An A Share in respect of which no Trickle Price was paid shall not be entitled to participate in any Dividends paid on Dividend Dates occurring before the Participation Date of that A Share.

57.10 If a substantial special Dividend is declared (as a result of a disposal of a material asset, sale of the whole or major part of the business or otherwise) and the amount of the Dividend is such that the resulting Notional Dividend in respect of any class of A Share is more than the amount required to reduce the Notional Outstandings of that class to zero, then (for the avoidance of doubt):

57.10.1 the principles in this article 57 shall be applied to allocate a sufficient portion of the Allocated Dividend Amount to a Notional Dividend to reduce the Notional Outstandings of that class to zero; and 57.10.2 the remaining portion of the Allocated Dividend Amount (after the Notional Outstandings have been reduced to zero) shall be paid to the Subscriber in cash.

Pari passu dividend rights after Participation Date

57.11 Once the Participation Date occurs in respect of a class of A Shares, that class of A Shares shall automatically rank pari passu with the ordinary shares in the Company insofar as the declaration and payment of Dividends are concerned. They may however still be redeemable after their Participation Date if the Commitment Date ascribed to that class of A Shares occurs after the Participation Date of that class.

Redemption

57.12 The A Shares are redeemable in accordance with this article 57.

Redemption after Notional Date

57.13 If the Notional Outstandings attributable to the A Shares held by a Subscriber are not equal to zero by or before the Notional Date of that class of A shares, then the Company shall be entitled (but not obliged), at any time after such Notional Date, to redeem such number of A Shares held by that Subscriber as is determined in terms of the formula:

$$N = \frac{NO}{VPS} * A$$

where:

N = the number of A Shares held by the Subscriber that are redeemable at the option of the Company;

NO = the Notional Outstandings per A Share immediately before the Company redeems A Shares in terms of this article 57.13;

VPS = the Value Per Share as at the date on which the Company redeems A Shares in terms of this article 57.13; and

A = the number of A Shares held by the relevant Subscriber on the date on which the Company redeems A Shares in terms of this article 57.13.

57.14 The Subscriber shall have the right, from the Notional Date until the first anniversary of the Notional Date, to require the Company to redeem some of that Subscriber's A Shares in terms of article 57.13. If the Subscriber issues a written demand in terms of this article 57.14, the Company shall be obliged to redeem the number of A Shares determined in accordance with the formula in article 57.13 as soon as reasonably possible after receipt of the demand.

57.15 If A Shares are redeemed in terms of article 57.13, the redemption price shall be R0.01 per A Share.

57.16 Once the Company has made a redemption in terms of article 57.13 in respect of a class of A Share issued to a Subscriber, the Participation Date of that class shall have occurred and the remaining A Shares owned by that Subscriber shall participate pari passu with the ordinary shares in all Dividends declared after such redemption date.

57.17 For the avoidance of doubt, once the Notional Outstandings of a class of A Shares equal zero, the relevant class will no longer be redeemable in terms of article 57.13, but they may remain redeemable in terms of article 57.21 (Material Breach) if the Commitment Date of that class of A Share is later than the Notional Date of that class.

Redemption when Subscription Option is exercised

57.18 If a Subscriber exercises its Subscription Option, then the Company shall be obliged to forthwith redeem exactly the same number of existing A Shares from the Subscriber as the number of new A Shares issued, or to be issued, to the Subscriber at a zero Nominal Amount.

57.19 If A Shares are redeemed in terms of article 57.18, the redemption price shall be R0.01 per A Share.

57.20 For purposes of clarity, A Shares are redeemable in terms of article 57.18 only until the Participation Date of the relevant class of A Share because the Subscription Option can only be exercised up until the Participation Date.

Redemption upon occurrence of Material Breach

57.21 If a Material Breach occurs before the Commitment Date of a particular class of A Shares, the Company shall be entitled (but not obliged) to redeem all (or any lesser number) of the A Shares held by the Subscriber who committed the Material Breach within 180 days of becoming aware of the fact that the Material Breach has occurred. If the Company fails to redeem the relevant A Shares within such 180-day period, the entitlement to redeem as a result of that Material Breach shall lapse.

57.22 If A Shares are redeemed in terms of article 57.21, the redemption price shall, unless otherwise determined in the relevant Directors Determination, be:

57.22.1 R0.01 per A Share, if no Trickle Price was paid in respect of such A Share; and 57.22.2 70% of the Trickle Price, if a Trickle Price was paid in respect of such A Share.

57.23 After the Commitment Date of a class of A Shares, such class of A Shares shall no longer be redeemable in terms of article 57.21.

Redemption on Change in Control

57.24 If a Change in Control occurs and the relevant third party could not make an offer to acquire a particular class of A Shares because the class of A Shares were not transferable at the time when the Change in Control occurred, then the Company shall be entitled (but not obliged) for a period of 90 days following the date on which the Change in Control occurred, to redeem all (and not part only) of the A Shares in that class.

57.25 If the Company elects to redeem A Shares in terms of article

57.24, then the redemption price per A Share shall be equal to:

57.25.1 (i) if the Change in Control occurred as a result of the implementation of an offer as defined in section 117 of the Act (excluding an offer in respect of an affected transaction contemplated in section 117(c)(iv) of the Act), the offer price; or (ii) in all other circumstances, the weighted average price per ordinary share paid by the third party in respect of all the shares purchased by it during the six month period leading up to the date on which the Change in Control occurred; minus 57.25.2 the Notional Outstandings (if any) attached to the A Share on the date of redemption.

No longer redeemable

57.26 The A Shares issued to a Subscriber shall no longer be redeemable on the later of:

57.26.1 the day immediately following the Participation Date of the A Shares issued to the Subscriber; and 57.26.2 the Commitment Date of the A Shares issued to the Subscriber.

57.27 Once the A Shares issued to a Subscriber cease to be redeemable, they rank pari passu with the ordinary shares in all respects.

57.28 Once the A Shares issued to a Subscriber rank pari passu with the ordinary shares in all respects the Company shall use reasonable endeavours:

57.28.1 to ensure that such A Shares are listed on the JSE as soon as reasonably possible (if the ordinary share capital of the Company is listed on the JSE on such date); and 57.28.2 to rename such A Shares "ordinary shares" before listing, if possible in terms of applicable laws.

Rights on Liquidation

57.29 Upon liquidation of the Company, each A Share shall participate pari passu with the ordinary shares in any liquidation dividend, provided that in calculating the liquidation dividend payable in respect of A Shares and ordinary shares, the liquidation dividend payable in respect of each A Share shall be reduced by its Notional Outstandings, if any, as at the date of liquidation.

Allocated Dividend Amount

57.30 The Company shall on each Dividend Date calculate and keep record of the Notional Dividend and Notional Outstandings per A Share as at that date.

57.31 If the board of directors resolve to declare a Dividend, the amount of such Dividend as determined by the board (minus the amount required to pay any dividend-related tax payable by the Company or the Subscriber) shall constitute the "Distributable Amount".

57.32 The Allocated Dividend Amount per A Share shall be calculated on each Dividend Date in terms of the formula:

$$\text{ADA} = \frac{\text{DA}}{n + A}$$

where:

ADA = the Allocated Dividend Amount per A Share;

DA = Distributable Amount on the relevant Dividend Date;

n = the number of ordinary shares in issue plus, if there are still preference shares in issue that bear the rights and privileges set out in article 56, the number of such preference shares; and

A = the number of A Shares in issue.

57.33 The Allocated Dividend Amount is a notional amount that represents the dividend that would have been payable in respect of every A Share in issue if all the A Shares were ordinary shares on the relevant Dividend Date. It follows that the actual amount paid on the relevant Dividend Date in respect of shares other than A Shares will be more than the Allocated Dividend Amount, because the A Shares will not (before their Participation Date) participate pari passu with the remainder of the share capital in the Distributable Amount.

57.34 If the Company declares a Dividend in specie, the value of such Dividend, as certified by the board in writing at the relevant time, shall constitute the Distributable Amount for purposes of determining the Allocated Dividend Amount.

Sub-division and Consolidation of Share Capital

57.35 The ordinary share capital of the Company shall not be sub-divided or consolidated unless the A Share capital is sub-divided or consolidated on the same basis, as the case may be. If the A Share capital is sub-divided or consolidated, the Notional Outstandings on the A Share capital shall be divided or consolidated on the same basis.

General Buy-Back of Shares

57.36 If the Company implements a general buy-back of shares:

57.36.1 the Company shall also repurchase a proportionate number of A Shares from each holder;

57.36.2 if the Participation Date has occurred in respect of an A Share, its buy-back price shall be the same as the buy-back price paid per ordinary share;

57.36.3 if the Participation Date has not occurred in respect of an A Share, then:

57.36.3.1 the buy-back price of that A Share shall be R0.01; and

57.36.3.2 the Notional Outstandings of the remaining A Shares held by the Subscriber after the buy-back shall be adjusted and recalculated in accordance with the formula:

NO = $\frac{TNO}{\text{-----}}$

where:

NO = the new Notional Outstandings per A Share held by the Subscriber after the implementation of the general buy-back;

TNO = the total Notional Outstandings attributable to all the A Shares held by that Subscriber immediately before the implementation of the general buy-back; and

N = the number of A Shares held by the Subscriber after the implementation of the general buy-back; and

57.36.3.3 the Allocated Dividend Amount resulting from the general buy-back shall be similarly adjusted in accordance with the formula below:

$$\text{NADA} = \frac{(\text{ADA} * n)}{y}$$

where:

NADA = the new Allocated Dividend Amount after adjustment to provide for the reduced number of shares in issue after the general buy-back;

ADA = the Allocated Dividend Amount calculated in respect of the Distributable Amount available to implement the buy-back;

n = the number of A Shares held by the Subscriber immediately before the general buy-back; and y = the number of A Shares held by the Subscriber immediately after the implementation of the general buy-back; and 57.36.3.4 the adjusted Allocated Dividend Amount calculated in terms of article 57.36.3.3 shall be used to determine the Notional Dividend that be deducted from the Notional Outstandings of the remaining A Shares as a result of the buy-back.

Capitalisation Shares

57.37 If the Company declares a scrip dividend by issuing capitalisation shares to its shareholders, and regardless of whether the shareholders are offered the option to receive cash instead of scrip, the Company shall:

57.37.1 at the same time that capitalisation shares are issued, issue and allot a proportionate number of new A Shares to the Subscribers (so that for illustrative purposes if the issued ordinary share capital is increased by 10% the issued A Share capital shall also be increased by 10%);

57.37.2 the Notional Outstandings per issued A Share held by a Subscriber shall be adjusted by dividing the aggregate Notional Outstandings on all the A Shares held by that Subscriber before the issue of the additional A Shares in terms of article 57.37.1 by the number of A Shares held by that Subscriber after such issue.

Rights Offers

57.38 If the Company makes a rights offer to the holders of ordinary shares, such rights offer shall be made on the same terms and conditions to all holders of A Shares to allow them to subscribe for ordinary shares.

Transferability

57.39 Unless otherwise stated in the Directors' Determination made in respect of each issue of A Shares, an A Share shall not be transferable and may not be encumbered until the date on which it ranks pari passu with the ordinary shares in all respects, being the date on which such A Share is no longer redeemable as set out in article 57.26."

The reason for Special Resolution 5 is to provide for the creation of a black economic empowerment ("BEE") notional funding structure. The directors of the Company are of the opinion that it is of strategic importance to maintain its strong black ownership credentials. The creation of the BEE class of shares would also enable the directors of the Company to approach suitably qualified BEE investors to enhance and maintain its BEE credentials, and also to potentially expand the current distribution channels of the Company and the group.

Special Resolution 6 - Approval of share issue to BEE shareholders

"Resolved that the board be authorised (to the extent required in terms of section 41 of the Act), for a period until the earlier of two years following the passing of this resolution and the date of listing of the Company, to issue any number of authorised but unissued "A" ordinary redeemable no par value shares in the Company to BEE investors, on such terms and conditions as the directors in their discretion deem fit."

Special Resolution 6 may be required to enable the board of directors to issue shares to potential BEE investors as contemplated in the discussion on Special Resolution 5 above, to the extent that any such share issue exceeds the 30% threshold stipulated in section 41(3) of the Act.

Ordinary Resolution 4

"Resolved that each of the directors of the Company is hereby authorised to do all things, perform all acts and sign all documentation necessary to effect the implementation of the ordinary and special resolutions adopted at this annual general meeting."

OTHER BUSINESS

To transact such other business as may be transacted at an annual general meeting.

NOTES TO THE ANNUAL FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

1. The Group results were prepared under the supervision of Mr D de Klerk (CA(SA)), the Chief Financial Officer.
2. The accounting policies adopted for the purpose of the Group financial statements comply with International Financial Reporting Standards ("IFRS") and the Companies Act, 71 of 2008, as amended, and are consistent with those used in the Annual Financial Statements for the year ended 30 June 2010.
3. The preparation of financial statements in accordance with IFRS requires the use of certain critical accounting estimates and judgement. The reported amounts in respect of the Group's policyholder liabilities, intangible assets, owner-occupied properties, unquoted financial instruments and taxation are affected by accounting estimates and judgement.
4. There was no significant impact due to changes in previous assumptions used in deriving the amounts referred to above.
5. The following changes in accounting policies have been made in the current period:
 - (a) As a result of the demutualisation, the capital fund was converted into share capital and premium and the balance into retained income.
 - (b) As a result of the demutualisation, a restructuring of the holdings in subsidiary companies was made. The investments in unquoted subsidiaries are now carried at cost, with no subsequent fair value adjustments.
 - (c) Prior to demutualisation, the revaluations on owner-occupied properties were utilised in the change in policyholder liabilities. Post-demutualisation, the revaluations are carried in the revaluation reserve.
