(2) Every member of staff employed in terms of the Public Service Act is subject to a code of conduct of public servants and disciplinary procedures provided for in terms of the Public Service Act and its Regulations.”.

Transitional provisions

34. (1) For the purposes of this section, any word or expression to which a meaning has been ascribed in the principal Act bears the meaning so ascribed, and “norms and standards” means the minimum norms and standards for the funding of public colleges contemplated in section 23 of the principal Act as amended by this Act.

(2) Any principal or vice-principal employed in terms of the Public Service Act immediately before section 11 of this Act takes effect, remain so employed.

(3) Any lecturer or member of the support staff employed by a public college immediately before section 12 of this Act takes effect and who occupies a post other than a post contemplated in subsection (4), remains so employed and must be regarded as staff appointed in terms of section 20(4) of the principal Act as amended by this Act.

(4) Any lecturer or member of the support staff employed by a public college in a post that is fully funded in terms of the norms and standards on 1 January 2012, must be verified by the Minister as fully funded posts, and the Minister must, subject to section 197 of the Labour Relations Act, transfer those posts to the organisational structure of the Department in accordance with the Public Service Act.

(5) Subject to section 197 of the Labour Relations Act, staff who, immediately before section 12 of this Act takes effect, renders support services to public colleges situated in provinces, both at district and head office, even if such a staff member is appointed as an educator in terms of the Employment of Educators Act, 1998 (Act No. 76 of 1998), must be transferred to the organisational structure of the Department of Higher Education and Training in accordance with the Public Service Act.

(6) If any discrepancy exists between a condition of service relating to an educator’s post and the public service post to which he or she is transferred, the conditions of service in terms of the Public Service Act prevail.

(7) During the translation of the post in terms of this section, any condition attached to a lecturer’s post that is more beneficial to the incumbent continues to exist as a benefit personal to that incumbent until the condition of the public service equivalent to that post is similar or better.

(8) Any disciplinary measure relating to employment of a staff member contemplated in subsection (4) which is pending when section 12 of this Act takes effect, must be finalised in terms of the law that authorised the commencement of that measure.

(9) The General Public Service Sector Bargaining Council or the PSCBC, as the case may be, continues to be the bargaining council to determine salaries and conditions of employment of staff employed by a public college in accordance with section 20(2)(b) of the principal Act as amended by this Act until the parties agree to establish a new structure relevant to public colleges.
