1. The National Director of Public Prosecutions (“National Director”) has obtained by way of a rule nisi, a preservation of property order (‘the preservation order’) in terms of section 38 (2) of the Prevention of Organised Crime Act, 121 of 1998 (hereinafter referred to as the POCA) in respect of certain property.

2. If you have an interest in the property, you should understand that it is now at risk. You would be well advised to obtain legal advice on whether your interest can be protected and, if so, how to protect it.

3. You are advised that on ..... the National Director will ask the Court that the rule nisi be confirmed in which case the interim effect of the preservation order will be made final. Should you wish to oppose the confirmation of the rule, you are required to be in attendance at Court on the aforementioned date.

4. Thereafter the National Director will publish the preservation order in the Government Gazette. Within 90 days of publication of the order, the National Director will apply to the High Court under section 48 of the POCA for an order declaring the property forfeit to the State. The preservation order will remain in force until the application for a forfeiture order is finalised and until the forfeiture order is satisfied.

5. If you intend opposing the application for a forfeiture order, or you intend applying for an order excluding your interest from a forfeiture order in respect of the property, you must enter an appearance in terms of the provisions of the POCA.
