NOTICE IN TERMS OF SECTION 39 (1) OF ACT 121 OF 1998

1. This notice is addressed to the Respondent and to all persons who have an interest in the property. It is meant to advise such persons of some of the options available to them.

ORDERS OF THE COURT (continued) • ORDERS VAN DIE HOF (vervolg)

Take notice that:

2. The National Director of Public Prosecutions (the National Director) has obtained a preservation of property order (the order) in terms of section 38 (2) of the Prevention of Organised Crime Act 121 of 1998 (POCA) against the property. A copy of the order is attached to this notice.

3. If you have an interest in the property you should understand that it is now at risk because the National Director intends applying to the Port Elizabeth High Court (the Court) for a forfeiture order within 90 days of the publication of the order in the Government Gazette (the Gazette). The order will remain in force until:

3.1 a forfeiture order granted by the court in respect of the property subject to the order remains unsatisfied; or

3.2 the National Director fails to apply for a forfeiture order within 90 days after publication of the order in the Gazette; or

3.3 the order is set aside by the Court before expiry of 90 days from date of its publication in the Gazette.

4. You are advised to obtain legal advice to ascertain if you can protect your interest and, if so, how to protect it. If you wish to oppose this Application, or to apply for an order excluding your interest in the property from the operation of the forfeiture order that may be made, you must give notice of such intention in terms of the order attached to this notice. The requirements of such notice are dealt with in section 39(3), (4) and (5) of POCA. An appearance must comply with these requirements.

5. If this notice has been served on you or delivered to you, you must within 14 days after that date give notice of your intention to oppose this Application or to apply for an order excluding your interest in the property from the operation of the forfeiture order that may be granted. If you fail to do so within that time your interest in the property may be defeated by a forfeiture order granted by default in terms of sections 50 and 53 of POCA.

6. If this notice has not been served or delivered to you, you must within 14 days after the date of publication of the preservation order in the Gazette give notice of your intention to oppose this Application or to apply for an order excluding your interest in the property from the operation of the forfeiture order that may be granted.

7. For a notice of intention to oppose this Application to be valid, you must:

7.1 serve or deliver the original to the Registrar of the Court;

7.2 serve or deliver a copy to the State Attorney at 29 Western Road, Central, Port Elizabeth;

7.3 state therein an address within 8 kilometers of the Court at which you will accept notice and service or delivery of all documents relating to this Application; and

7.4 attach to the notice an affidavit in which you set out:

7.4.1 full particulars of the identity of the person giving the notice;

7.4.2 the nature and extent of his or her interest in the property concerned;

7.4.3 whether you intend to oppose the making of the forfeiture order, or to apply for an order:

7.4.4 excluding your interest in that property from the operation from the order; or

7.4.5 varying the operation of the order in respect of that property;

7.4.6 whether you admit or deny that the property concerned is an instrumentality of an offence referred to, in Schedule 1 of POCA, or is the proceeds of unlawful activities;

7.4.7 the facts:

7.4.7.1 on which you intend to rely in opposing the making of a forfeiture order or applying for a rescission order;

7.4.7.2 on the basis of which you admit or deny that the property concerned is an instrumentality of an offence referred in Schedule 1 of the Act, or is the proceeds of unlawful activities.

8. If you give notice in terms of the order and comply with the above requirements for the notice you will be entitled to be given 14 days' notice of the Application for the forfeiture order.

9. If you should fail to give notice of your intention to oppose validly and in good time, or if you should not have received or become aware of this notice, you may yet have grounds to apply in terms of section 49 of POCA for leave of the Court to give late notice of your intention to oppose.

10. Any person affected by the preservation order may apply to the Court to have that order set aside in the circumstances mentioned in section 47 (1) of POCA. In addition, the Court is obliged by the provisions of section 47 (1)(b) of POCA to set aside or rescind the preservation order when the proceedings against the Defendant concerned are concluded. However, section 50 (4) of POCA also provides that the validity of a forfeiture order is not affected by the outcome of the criminal proceedings in respect of an offence with which the property is associated.

11. The order in respect of immovable property may be rescinded or set aside by the Court at any time on the application by a person who is affected by it.

12. A forfeiture order must also be published in the Gazette in terms of section 50 (5) of POCA. If a forfeiture order should have been made before you become aware that it is to be sought, you may have grounds on which to apply to this Court in terms of section 54 of POCA for the exclusion of your interest from the operation of the forfeiture order already made, or for an order varying the operation of the forfeiture order in respect of the property. You will then have to comply with the procedural requirements of section 54. You will have only 45 days from the date of publication of the Forfeiture order in the Gazette in which to make an application to the Court for relief.

ORDERS OF THE COURT (continued) • ORDERS VAN DIE HOF (vervolg)

13. If a forfeiture order or any other order under section 53 (1) (b) of POCA should be made by default, any person whose interest in the property concerned is affected by the order will have the right, within 20 days after acquiring knowledge of the order, to set the matter down for variation or rescission of the order by the Court and the Court is empowered, upon good cause shown, to vary or rescind the default order or to give some other direction on such terms as it deems appropriate.

ORDERS OF THE COURT (continued) • ORDERS VAN DIE HOF (vervolg)

9. Any person affected by the Preservation Order may apply to the Court to have that Order set aside in the circumstances mentioned in section 47 (1) of POCA. In addition, the Court is obliged by the provisions of section 47 (1) (b) of POCA to set aside or rescind the Preservation Order when the proceedings against the Defendant concerned are concluded. However, section 50 (4) of POCA also provides that the validity of a Forfeiture Order is not affected by the outcome of the criminal proceedings in respect of an offence with which the property is associated.

10. The Order in respect of immovable property may be rescinded or set aside by the Court at any time on the application by a person who is affected by it.

11. A Forfeiture Order must also be published in the Gazette in terms of section 50 (5) of POCA. If a Forfeiture Order should have been made before you become aware that it is to be sought, you may have grounds on which to apply to this Court in terms of section 54 of POCA for the exclusion of your interest from the operation of the Forfeiture Order already made, or for an order varying the operation of the Forfeiture Order in respect of the property. You will then have to comply with the procedural requirements of section 54. You will have only forty-five (45) days from the date of publication of the Forfeiture Order in the Gazette in which to make an application to the Court for relief.

12. If a Forfeiture Order or any other Order under section 53 (1) (b) of POCA should be made by default, any person whose interest in the property concerned is affected by the Order will have the right, within twenty (20) days after acquiring knowledge of the Order, to set the matter down for variation or rescission of the Order by the Court and the Court is empowered, upon good cause shown, to vary or rescind the default Order or to give some other direction on such terms as it deems appropriate.

3.3 the order is set aside by the Court before expiry of 90 days from date of its publication in the Gazette.

4 You are advised to obtain legal advice to ascertain if you can protect your interest and, if so, how to protect it. If you wish to oppose this Application, or to apply for an order excluding your interest in the property from the operation of the forfeiture order that may be made, you must give notice of such intention in terms of the order attached to this notice. The requirements of such notice are dealt with in section 39 (3), (4) and (5) of POCA. An appearance must comply with these requirements.

If this notice has been served on you or delivered to you, you must within 14 days after that date give notice of your intention to oppose this Application or to apply for an order excluding your interest in the property from the operation of the forfeiture order that may be granted. 6. If this notice has not been served or delivered to you, you must within 14 days after the date of publication of the preservation order in the Gazette give notice of your intention to oppose this Application or to apply for an order excluding your interest in the property from the operation of the forfeiture order that may be granted.

ORDERS OF THE COURT (continued) • ORDERS VAN DIE HOF (vervolg)

7. For a notice of intention to oppose this Application to be valid, you must:
- 7.1 serve or deliver the original to the Registrar of the Court;
 - 7.2 serve or deliver a copy to the State Attorney at 29 Western Road, Central, Port Elizabeth;
 - 7.3 state therein an address within 8 kilometers of the Court at which you will accept notice and service or delivery of all documents relating to this Application; and

 - 7.4.1 full particulars of the identity of the person giving the notice;
 - 7.4.2 the nature and extent of his or her interest in the property concerned;
 - 7.4.3 whether you intend to oppose the making of the forfeiture order, or to apply for an order:
 - 7.4.4 excluding your interest in that property from the operation from the order; or
 - 7.4.5 varying the operation of the order in respect of that property;
 - 7.4.6 whether you admit or deny that the property concerned is an instrumentality of an offence referred to in Schedule 1 of POCA, or is the proceeds of unlawful activities;
 - 7.4.7 the facts:
 - 7.4.7.1 on which you intend to rely in opposing the making of a forfeiture order or applying for a rescission order;
 - 7.4.7.2 on the basis of which you admit or deny that the property concerned is an instrumentality of an offence referred in Schedule 1 of the Act, or is the proceeds of unlawful activities.
8. If you give notice in terms of the order and comply with the above requirements for the notice you will be entitled to be given 14 days' notice of the Application for the forfeiture order.
9. If you should fail to give notice of your intention to oppose validly and in good time, or if you should not have received or become aware of this notice, you may yet have grounds to apply in terms of section 49 of POCA for leave of the Court to give late notice of your intention to oppose.
10. Any person affected by the preservation order may apply to the Court to have that order set aside in the circumstances mentioned in section 47 (1) of POCA. In addition, the Court is obliged by the provisions of section 47 (1) (b) of POCA to set aside or rescind the preservation order when the proceedings against the Defendant concerned are concluded. However, section 50 (4) of POCA also provides that the validity of a forfeiture order is not affected by the outcome of the criminal proceedings in respect of an offence with which the property is associated.
11. The order in respect of immovable property may be rescinded or set aside by the Court at any time on the application by a person who is affected by it.
12. A forfeiture order must also be published in the Gazette in terms of section 50(5) of POCA. If a forfeiture order should have been made before you become aware that it is to be sought, you may have grounds on which to apply to this Court in terms of section 54 of POCA for the exclusion of your interest from the operation of the forfeiture order already made, or for an order varying the operation of the forfeiture order in respect of the property. You will then have to comply with the procedural requirements of section 54. You will have only 45 days from the date of publication of the Forfeiture order in the Gazette in which to make an application to the Court for relief.
13. If a forfeiture order or any other order under section 53 (1) (b) of POCA should be made by default, any person whose interest in the property concerned is affected by the order will have the right, within 20 days after acquiring knowledge of the order, to set the matter down for variation or rescission of the order by the Court and the Court is empowered, upon good cause shown, to vary or rescind the default order or to give some other direction on such terms as it deems appropriate.
