1 Purpose

These regulations give effect to Maritime Labour Convention 2006.

2 Definitions

In these regulations, unless the context indicates otherwise, an expression given a meaning by the Act has the given meaning, and—

"approved" means approved by the Authority;

"Maritime Labour Convention" means the Convention as defined in the Act 2006;

"seafarer" means a person as defined in the Act

"seafarer recruitment and placement service" means any person, company, institution, Agency or other Organisation, in the public or the private sector, which is engaged in recruiting seafarers on behalf of a shipowners or placing seafarers with shipowners;

"shipowner" means the owner of a ship or any person, such as a manager or bareboat charterer, who has assumed the responsibility for the operation of the ship;

"the Act" means the Merchant Shipping Act 1951 (Act No. 57 of 1951).

3 Application

These regulations apply to any seafarer recruitment or placement service that recruits or places seafarers on ships to which the Convention applies.

Part 2 Seafarer recruitment and placement services

4 Recruitment and placement

- (1) No person may operate a seafarer recruitment and placement service unless that person holds a certificate of accreditation issued by the Authority.
- (2) The authorised representative of a ship must ensure that no person is recruited or placed for work on the ship by seafarer recruitment and placement service unless they hold a certificate of accreditation issued by the Authority.

5 Accreditation of seafarer recruitment and placement services

- (1) For the purpose of accreditation, the seafarer recruitment and placement service must submit an application, in writing, to the Authority with the following particulars:
 - (a) name and physical address of the seafarer recruitment and placement service;
 - (b) name of each placement agent with a brief description of the agent's relevant expertise;
 - (c) details of any quality assurance system applicable to the activities of the service.
- (2) For accreditation, a seafarer recruitment and placement service must, on receipt of reasonable notice, make available for inspection, by the Authority, the following documentation:
 - (a) the Act;
 - (b) Merchant Shipping (Safe Manning, Training and Certification) Regulations 2013 as amended;
 - (c) the Convention;
 - (d) STCW Convention; and
 - (e) Maritime Labour Certificate; and
 - (f) Declaration of Maritime Labour Compliance: Parts I and II
- (3) If the Authority is satisfied that the seafarer recruitment and placement service complies with (1) and (2) after conducting audit of the service, it will issue the accreditation valid for a period not exceeding five years.

- (4) Every seafarer recruitment and placement service that is accredited must—
 - (a) make available, to the Authority, in reasonable time, all contracts entered into between the service and a shipowner;
 - (b) make available, to the Authority, all contracts entered into with seafarers;
 - (c) for audit purposes, preserve the documents referred to in paragraphs (a) and (b) for a period of at least five years.
- (5) The Authority or any person appointed by the authority may visit a seafarer recruitment and placement service at any reasonable time for the purpose of auditing the operations of the service.
- (6) The Authority may vary or revoke an accreditation granted under subregulation (3) if—
 - (a) the seafarer recruitment and placement service concerned fails to comply with these regulations or any of the conditions of accreditation; or
 - (b) the Authority otherwise has reasonable grounds to vary or revoke such accreditation.
- (7) Where the Authority intends to vary or revoke accreditation under subregulation (6), it shall inform the seafarer recruitment and placement service concerned accordingly, giving it at least 30 days to correct any deficiencies or to furnish reasons why accreditation should not be varied or revoked.
- (8) A list of all accreditations in force under subregulation (3), including the particulars thereof, shall be published from time to time by marine notice.

6 Fees and other charges

No person shall impose, directly or indirectly, any fees or other charges on any seafarer for recruiting, placing or providing employment to the seafarer, other than the cost of obtaining a seafarers record book or passport, or any training required for a particular post.

7 Duties of seafarer recruitment and placement service

- (1) A seafarer recruitment and placement service must—

- (a) maintain an up-to-date register of all seafarers recruited or placed by the service, which is to be kept available for inspection by the Authority;
- (b) ensure that seafarers are informed of their rights and duties under their employment agreements prior to engagement and proper arrangements are made for seafarers to examine their employment agreements before and after they are signed and for them to receive a copy of the agreements;
- (c) verify that seafarers recruited or placed by them are properly qualified and hold the appropriate qualifications for the position;
- (d) ensure that the shipowner has the means to repatriate seafarers;
- (e) examine and respond to any complaint concerning seafarers regarding their placement and recruitment ;
- (f) forward to the Authority all complaints that are received concerning on-board working or living conditions;
- (g) establish a system of protection, by way of insurance or an equivalent system, to compensate seafarers for any monetary loss that they may incur as a result of the failure of the seafarer recruitment and placement service to meet its obligations to them;
- (h) advise the seafarer if the vessel is registered in a country, in which the seafarer is to be placed, has not ratified the Convention and of any possible problems;
- (i) advise the seafarer of any particular conditions applicable to the job, and the shipowner's policies relating to employment;
- (j) ensure that requests for information or advice by the families of seafarers, while at sea, are dealt with promptly and sympathetically at no cost;
- (k) ensure that the shipowner has in place financial protection to cover—
 - (i) medical costs in the event of an accident;
 - (ii) funeral and death benefit cover, including the repatriation of the body;
 - (iii) loss of personal belongings due to an accident to the ship; and
 - (iv) repatriation costs in the event of the seafarer being stranded in any port;
- (l) ensure the confidentiality of documents submitted by a seafarer.

- (2) No seafarer recruitment or placement service shall use any means, mechanisms or lists intended to prevent or deter any person from gaining employment for which they are qualified.

Part 3 Conditions of employment

8 Articles of agreement

Where a seafarer is placed on a ship registered in the Republic to which the Convention applies, section 102 of the Act applies.

9 Contracts of employment

- (1) Where a seafarer is placed on a ship to which either section 102 of the Act does not apply or the ship is not registered in the Republic, a contract of employment is to be entered into and must contain the following information:
- (a) the full names of the contracting parties;
 - (b) the full names, passport and identity numbers of the seafarer;
 - (c) the names and contact details of the seafarer's next of kin;
