WARNING!!!

To all suppliers and potential suppliers of goods to the Government Printing Works

The Government Printing Works would like to warn members of the public against an organised syndicate(s) scamming unsuspecting members of the public and claiming to act on behalf of the Government Printing Works.

One of the ways in which the syndicate operates is by requesting quotations for various goods and services on a quotation form with the logo of the Government Printing Works. Once the official order is placed the syndicate requesting upfront payment before delivery will take place. Once the upfront payment is done the syndicate do not deliver the goods and service provider then expect payment from Government Printing Works.

Government Printing Works condemns such illegal activities and encourages service providers to confirm the legitimacy of purchase orders with GPW SCM, prior to processing and delivery of goods.

To confirm the legitimacy of purchase orders, please contact:

Renny Chetty (012) 748-6375 (Renny.Chetty@gpw.gov.za),

Where a customer walks into GPW with a stack of hard copy notices delivered by a messenger on behalf of a newspaper the messenger must be referred back to the sender as the submission does not adhere to the submission rules.
5. All notice submissions that do not comply with point 2 will be charged full price for the notice submission.

NOTICE IN TERMS OF SECTION 39(1) OF ACT 121 OF 1998

1 This notice is addressed to the Respondent and to all persons who have an interest in the property listed in Schedule A. It is meant to advise such persons of some of the options available to them.

TAKE NOTICE THAT:

2 The National Director of Public Prosecutions (the National Director) has obtained a Preservation of Property Order (the Order) in terms of section 38(2) of the Prevention of Organised Crime Act 121 of 1998 (POCA) against the property listed in Schedule A. A copy of the Order is attached to this notice.

3 If you have an interest in the property you should understand that it is now at risk because the National Director intends applying to the Port Elizabeth High Court (the Court) for a Forfeiture Order within 90 days of the publication of the Order in the Government Gazette (the Gazette). The Order will remain in force until:

3.1 a Forfeiture Order granted by the Court in respect of the property subject to the Order remains unsatisfied; or

3.2 the National Director fails to apply for a Forfeiture Order within 90 days after publication of the Order in the Gazette; or

3.3 the Order is set aside by the Court before expiry of 90 days from date of its publication in the Gazette.

4 You are advised to obtain legal advice to ascertain if you can protect your interest and, if so, how to protect it. If you wish to oppose this Application, or to apply for an Order excluding your interest in the property from the operation of the Forfeiture Order that may be made, you must give notice of such intention in terms of the Order attached to this notice. The requirements of such notice are dealt with in section 39(3), (4) and (5) of POCA. An appearance must comply with these requirements.

5 If this notice has been served on you or delivered to you, you must within 14 days after that date give notice of your intention to oppose this Application or to apply for an Order excluding your interest in the property from the operation of the Forfeiture Order that may be granted. If you fail to do so within that time your interest in the property may be defeated by a Forfeiture Order granted by default in terms of sections 50 and 53 of POCA.

6 If this notice has not been served or delivered to you, you must within 14 days after the date of publication of the Preservation Order in the Gazette give notice of your intention to oppose this Application or to apply for an Order excluding your interest in the property from the operation of the Forfeiture Order that may be granted.

7 For a notice of intention to oppose this Application to be valid, you must:

7.1 serve or deliver the original to the Registrar of the Court;

7.2 serve or deliver a copy to the State Attorney at 29 Western Road, Central, Port Elizabeth;

7.3 state therein an address within 8 kilometers of the Court at which you will accept notice and service or delivery of all documents relating to this Application; and

7.4 attach to the notice an affidavit in which you set out:

7.4.1 full particulars of the identity of the person giving the notice;

7.4.2 the nature and extent of his or her interest in the property concerned;

7.4.3 whether you intend to oppose the making of the Forfeiture Order, or to apply for an order:

7.4.4 excluding your interest in that property from the operation from the Order; or

7.4.5 varying the operation of the Order in respect of that property;

7.4.6 whether you admit or deny that the property concerned is an instrumentality of an offence referred to in Schedule 1 of POCA, or is the proceeds of unlawful activities;

7.4.7 the facts:

7.4.7.1 on which you intend to rely in opposing the making of a Forfeiture Order or applying for a rescission order;

7.4.7.2 on the basis of which you admit or deny that the property concerned is an instrumentality of an offence referred in Schedule 1 of the Act, or is the proceeds of unlawful activities.

8 If you give notice in terms of the Order and comply with the above requirements for the notice you will be entitled to be given 14 days' notice of the Application for the Forfeiture Order.

9 If you should fail to give notice of your intention to oppose validly and in good time, or if you should not have received or become aware of this notice, you may yet have grounds to apply in terms of section 49 of POCA for leave of the Court to give late notice of your intention to oppose.

10 Any person affected by the Preservation Order may apply to the Court to have that Order set aside in the circumstances mentioned in section 47(1) of POCA. In addition, the Court is obliged by the provisions of section 47(1)(b) of POCA to set aside or rescind the Preservation Order when the proceedings against the Defendant concerned are concluded. However, section 50(4) of POCA also provides that the validity of a Forfeiture Order is not affected by the outcome of the criminal proceedings in respect of an offence with which the property is associated.

11 The Order in respect of immovable property may be rescinded or set aside by the Court at any time on the application by a person who is affected by it.

12 A Forfeiture Order must also be published in the Gazette in terms of section 50(5) of POCA. If a Forfeiture Order should have been made before you become aware that it is to be sought, you may have grounds on which to apply to this Court in terms of section 54 of POCA for the exclusion of your interest from the operation of the Forfeiture Order already made, or for an order varying the operation of the Forfeiture Order in respect of the property. You will then have to comply with the procedural requirements of section 54. You will have only 45 days from the date of publication of the Forfeiture Order in the Gazette in which to make an application to the Court for relief.

13 If a Forfeiture Order or any other Order under section 53(1)(b) of POCA should be made by default, any person whose interest in the property concerned is affected by the Order will have the right, within 20 days after acquiring knowledge of the Order, to set the matter down for variation or rescission of the Order by the Court and the Court is empowered, upon good cause shown, to vary or rescind the default Order or to give some other direction on such terms as it deems appropriate.

DATE 25 MARCH 2015

BACKGROUND

This matter involves the repair of an of an engine engine block of a truck. The case put up against the Respondent is that on around the 21 July 2011, the consumer entered into an agreement with the Respondent in terms of which latter mandated to repair the former's Mercedes Benz truck with registration BRJ809L.

It is common cause that the truck was an old model and already had registered in excess of 8000 000KM.

In compliance with the mandate, The Respondent dismantled the block of the truck and discovered that it had a crack. At the advice of the Respondent, the block was taken for repairs at the local engineering firm. After this repairs, the Respondent accepted the block back and then proceeded with to assemble it and tried to start it but in vain as it would not respond. The respondent recovered that the block had serious leaks. The block was again dismantled only to discover that the block could not be used again.

upon the advice of the respondent, the consumer agreed to purchase another block which was second hand from another supplier. This block was purchased by the Respondent, and he also gave the three onths warrant on it. The second block was subsequently assembled and the Respondent got it started. after the repairs the truck was released on the 24 October 2011.

Approximately one month later the truck was released, i.e. on the 29 November 2011, problem started and the consumer ended taking it to mercedez Benz for repairs and indeed it was not repaired. For the repairs the Consumer parted with R167 622.00.

The issue now is whether the consumer is entitled to a refund of the money which was paid to the Respondent in respect of the bolock that was purchased and repairs effected to assemble it which amounts to R41 471.73.

ANALYSIS

It is common cause that the Respondent gave the three monrths for the repair work which below effected on the second block to the time of R41471.73

We accordingly find no difficulty to conclude that the warranty was given compiled with Section 57 C of the Consumer Protection Act No 68 of 2008 which state that the service provider warrants every new or reconditioned parts instaled during any repairs or mainteance work and labour required to install it, for a period of 3 months. after the date of installation or such longer period as the supplier may specify in waiting.

It is further common cause that the engine block gave problem after just one month after it was repaired.

We have listened to the argument by both sides and the zeal of departure from two versions are basically that the consumer says that on the 30 November 2011, a day after the truck broken down and was towed to Mercedes Benz truck outlet and after the stuff at Mercedes Benz had discovered the problem with the engine block, and had given him the quotatiion on the cost of the repairs, he had first telephoned and even later on personally visited the Respondent in order to discuss in o what the possibility they could embark on to get the truck back on the road again. The Respondent had categorically refused to to have anything to do with the truck's repairs. When he realized that the Respondent was not prepared to assist him, he had the decide to authorise Mercedes Benz to repiar the truck which was done for an amount of R167 622.00. The consumer submitted the that he was aware that therespondent cannot be liable for the cost at Mercedes Benz but would like to be compensated for the amount of repairs which was warranted.

On the other hand, the Respondent admitted that he had been made aware of the truck's breakdown in Boksburg and because the driver had informed him that he thought it was an airlock problem. He had advised advised the driver to get the Mercedes to fix it.

Although the Respondent's attorney attempted to insinuate that the driver of the truck had abused the truck, this point could not be carried further if there was nothing to substantiate it. We find no difficulty to reject the point due to luck of substance.

We further find no evidence in the arguments that no expect witness to be called. There is no point of scrutising this point further. We have carefully considered the seal of the point but we satisfied that none of them can carry this matter further.

CONCLUSION

In the final analysis we concluded that:

Responded is ordered to refund an amount of of R41 471.73 to the consumer within a period of fourteen (14) days from the ate of judgment. Interest of 15.5 % per annum.

BACKGROUND

The consumer, Mr Mohamed Osman, brought a complaint and alleged unfair business practice against the Respondent alleging an agreement he entered into with the latter in terms of which the latter was to effect the some mechanical repairs on his Mercedes benz C270CD1 motor vehicle. The allegation was that due to poor workmanship when the Respondent effected the repairs, the vehicle had broken down and as it was necessary to do so, he had the vehicle to Mercedes benz who then fixed the problem.

In his particular of claim, the complainant requested judgement against the Respondent for:

1. An amount of R8000 .00
2. Refund of the amount paid for the warranty
3. Further and/ or alternative relief

EVIDENCE

Applicant testified to the effect that during February 2012, he took his Mercedes benz C270, 2003 model, which at the time had plus minus 160 000KM on the clock Respondent for repairs because it had a hard start. The vehicle was eleven years old at the time.

The amount of the repairs was initially agreed upon as R6299.36. As it appears from the quotation which was given by the Respondent to the Applicant, The repairs were for the pressure test of the cylinder, the reconditioning of the the cylinder head, bolts, to remove and put back the cylinder head plus shop supply.

From the above quotation it is obvious that the Respondent was going to deal the problem of the cylinder head only. after he was given discount, The Applicant paid an amount of R5670.56 and collected the car on the 17th July 2012. he was given a guarantee on the repairs effected for nine months. at that stage the vehicle's kilometer reading was at 196061.

When he returned the vehicle to the Respondent due to an alleged lack of power, the respondent initiated to the applicant that the problem of power had nothing to do with what he had repaired. After severall disagreement with the Respondent, The applicant took the vehicle to Mercurius, The authentic dealers of mercedez Benz vehicle.

Mercedez Benz tested the vehicle and discovered the following faults:

Valve cover welded; Injector leaking; High pressure fuel pimp leaking; Fuel lines incorrectly routed and leaking; Vacuum liners routine incorrect and harness routing incorrect; water drains routing incorrect; Engine harness routing incorrect and condition suspect; Frontal impact damage and loose wiring; Steering Rack leaking oil; Gearbox oil leak; Engine dipstick tube routing incorrect and secured; Rear exhaust silencer modified; Right rear car tyre worn below specs

In order to to rectify the above faults, mercedez Benz quoted an Applicant an amount of R69 000.00 which he paid and collected the car.

The version of the respondent was clear. He repaired the cylinder head and later on put it back on when the Applicant returned with the vehicle, his complaints were new complaints which had nothing to do with what he repaired.

ANALYSIS OF THE EVIDENCE

Let us emphasize this: our powers are limited to three remedies, namely: Refund, Repair and Replace

Secondly we are not empowered to grant an order for damages. The pprayer by the applicant for payment of R8000.00 on punitive damage caannot be sustained and is accordingly dismissed.

Thirdly, the second prayer for the refund of an amount of R5670.00 can also not stand by virtue ofaact t that the repairs effected by the Respondent are not the same as the ones which were effeted by the Mercedes benz.

Fourthly, we have taken note of the fact that after repairs were effected by the Respondednt, the Complainant took the deliveryof the vehicle whilst the reading of the speedometer was plus minus 196000km.

In the final analysis, The Applicant has no valid claim against the respondednt and the claim is dismissed accordingly.

Notice is hereby given in terms of Section 38(1)(a)(ii) of the Long-term Insurance Act, 52 of 1998 (hereinafter referred to as "the Act"), that it is the intention of Superflex Limited (registration number: 1995/010767/06) ("Superflex") to close its business and to transfer a part of its business, being all level annuity policies and income growth annuity policies ("the Substituted Policies"), to Old Mutual Life Assurance Company (South Africa) Limited (registration number 1999/004643/06) ("Old Mutual").
