SECTION 1: BACKGROUND AND CONTEXT

1.1 Introduction

- 1.1.1 This language policy is intended as an enabling framework for promoting South Africa's linguistic diversity and encouraging respect for language rights within the policy framework for building and consolidating a united democratic South African nation.
- 1.1.2 There is a strong awareness of the need to intensify efforts to develop the previously marginalised indigenous languages and to promote multilingualism.
- 1.1.3 This policy applies to -
 - 1.1.3.1 Everyone that interacts with the department.
 - 1.1.3.2 All employees of the Department of Rural Development and Land Reform (DRDLR).
 - 1.1.3.3 All entities reporting to the Minister of Rural Development and Land Reform.

1.2 Legislative Provisions

- 1.2.1 The Constitution of the Republic of South Africa, Act No. 108 of 1996.
- 1.2.2 The Use of Official Languages, Act No. 12 of 2012.
- 1.2.3 Regulations in terms of section 13 of the Use of Official Languages, Act No. 12 of 2012.

1.3 Departmental Mandate

- 1.3.1 Land is the cornerstone of the country's democracy, as such the department, whose mandate is to create vibrant, equitable and sustainable rural communities has prioritized the formulation of land reform policies that bring innovative strategic thinking to fast-track land reform.
- 1.3.2 The department embarked on programmes, plans and policies aimed at ensuring that rural communities in particular enjoy the fruits of a democratic dispensation and equality as envisioned in the National Development Plan (NDP). Vision 2030 of the NDP calls for an inclusive rural economy wherein rural communities should have greater opportunities to participate fully in the economic, social and political life of the country.

- 1.3.3 The department introduced various programmes with the aim to stimulate agricultural production, enterprise development and to create jobs by providing small holder farmers with market access for their produce and contributing to food security in rural areas; building rural skills, building rural community livelihoods and economies and; transform the rural economy.
- 1.3.4 The current gap identified is that there is no mention of duty and responsibility placed on the worker-dweller to play their role in ensuring that their right of tenure to the land is earned; and could be systematically defended.
- 1.3.5 The land redistribution has a direct link to the alleviation of unemployment, poverty and inequality in South Africa, particularly in rural areas. The Policy Framework on Strengthening Relative Rights for People Working the Land (50/50 policy proposal) will not only bring about stability within the agricultural sector but will also improve food production and in turn ensure food security.
- 1.3.6 District Land Reform Committees (DLRCs) were introduced to further enhance the implementation of land reform through increased participation of stakeholders in developing solutions.
- 1.3.7 The implementation of the Comprehensive Rural Development Programme (CRDP) requires the effective coordination and collaboration between various stakeholders. To ensure participation of all sectors, the CRDP Management System has been developed as a framework for institutional and social engagement to enhance community participation in the current planning processes. To further ensure that this engagement takes place the framework on establishment of District Joint Operations Centres (DJOCs) has been approved by Cabinet. This management system flows from national level down to the household level.
- 1.3.8 In order to achieve the stipulated mandate as set out above, the Department of Rural Development and Land Reform (DRDLR) will implement a Language Policy that will assist citizens to better understand the service provided by the department.

SECTION 2: KEY ELEMENTS OF THE POLICY

2.1 Objectives

2.1.1 The language policy of the Department of Rural Development and Land Reform (the department) will, in the execution of its mandate, take cognisance of the constitutional provisions on multilingualism. Its aims are to –

- 2.1.1.1 promote the equitable use of the eleven official languages;
- 2.1.1.2 facilitate equitable access to departmental services, knowledge and information;
- 2.1.1.3 promote good language management for efficient rural development and land reform to meet client needs and expectations;
- 2.1.1.4 recognise the right of every individual to address the department via the medium of the official language or languages of his or her choice, to the extent that it is fair and feasible for the department to address the individual through the official language or languages concerned;
- 2.1.1.5 adopt the principle that a language policy may not cause any persons to be denied reasonable access to services of the department.

2.2 Principles

The language policy is based on the following principles:

- 2.2.1 A commitment to the promotion of language equity and consistent with the constitutional provisions on language, including those relating to language as a human right;
- 2.2.2 Recognising that languages are resources to maximise knowledge, expertise and full participation in the political and socio-economic domains;
- 2.2.3 Preventing the use of any language for the purposes of exploitation, domination and discrimination; and
- 2.2.4 Enhancing people-centeredness in addressing the interest, needs and aspirations of a wide range of language communities through on-going dialogue and debate.

2.3 Scope

- 2.3.1 The Department of Rural Development and Land Reform (national and provincial), as well as entities reporting to the Minister are bound by the Language Policy Framework.
- 2.3.2 In promoting multilingualism provinces will formulate their policies in line with the Policy Framework and the department's Language Policy, taking into account the regional circumstances and the needs and preferences of communities, as stated in the Constitution.
- 2.3.3 The department at national level will distribute the DRDLR national language policy to provinces to develop a province specific language policy according to the national language policy framework, based on the predominant languages in respective provinces in order to be more efficient and responsive in terms of attending to the needs of the communities.
- 2.3.4 The official languages will be used in all legislative activities.
- 2.3.5 To promote multilingualism this policy determines the use of different languages in departmental structures as follows:
- 2.3.5.1 Working language/s of record: By consensus, the department agreed on English as a working language for both intra and interdepartmental communication purposes; where practically possible, no person will be prevented from using the language(s) of his or her preference. When conducting meetings or performing specific tasks, effort must be made to utilise language facilitation facilities such as translation and/or interpreting (both consecutive and simultaneous, as well as whispered interpreting) where practically possible.
- 2.3.5.2 Communication with members of the public: All official departmental communication with the public must take place in the language/s of the target audience (citizen's choice), with the assistance of interpreters and or translators and technical means such as simulcast and subtitling, wherever necessary.
- 2.3.5.3 In the case of written communication between the department and citizens, the language of the citizens' choice will be used. If the department initiates the communication, the language of the target audience will, as a rule, determine the languages to be used.

2.3.5.4 Government publications: Comprehensive communication of information must be published in all 11 languages.

2.3.5.4.1 In cases where departmental documents will not be made available in all 11 official languages, the department will publish documents simultaneously in at least six languages. The selection will be made as follows:

- At least one from the Nguni group (isiNdebele, isiXhosa, isiZulu and siSwati);
- At least one from the Sotho group (Sepedi, Sesotho, Setswana);
- Tshivenda;
- Xitsonga;
- English; and
- Afrikaans.

2.3.5.4.2 A principle of rotation must be applied when selecting languages for publishing departmental documents in the Nguni and Sotho groups.

2.3.5.5 South African sign language: When conducting meetings or performing specific tasks, effort must be made to utilise language facilitation facilities such as translation and/or interpreting (consecutive and simultaneous, as well as whispered interpreting) where practically possible.

2.3.5.6 International communication: International communication on the part of department will normally be in English or in the preferred language of the relevant country.

SECTION 3: BUILDING HUMAN CAPACITY

- 3.1 The implementation of the language policy increases the demand for translation and editing work and interpreting services, especially in the indigenous languages.
- 3.2 The department will establish and fill vacancies in the language unit that will deal with specific language issues of the department and arising from this language policy, and to liaise with other departments on language matters.
- 3.3 The area of terminology will also be affected. The increase in translation work will require accelerated development of terminology in the official languages and of a Departmental Termbank that is accessible to both the department and freelance language practitioners.
- 3.4 Human Language Technology (HLT) applications (e.g. machine-assisted translations, translation memories, spellcheckers) for indigenous languages will be made available by the department to support language facilitation activities.
- 3.5 The structure for the Language Unit at National Office allows for one Deputy Director and two Assistant Directors, reporting to the Director: Communication Services.
- 3.6 Skills training will be prioritised when vacancies are filled.

SECTION 4: IMPLEMENTATION STRATEGIES

- 4.1 The progressive phasing in of the implementation of the policy in the short, medium and long term is the preferred strategy.
- 4.2 Implementation in regard of departmental publications will be phased in flexibly and pragmatically over three years. The advantage of the gradual phasing in methodology is that the department will be able to develop capacity incrementally and manage the implementation process more effectively.
- 4.3 Monitoring mechanisms will be developed to assure the quality of translations and editing services.
- 4.4 When requested, reports will be submitted to PanSALB and the Department of Arts and Culture from time to time.
- 4.5 The infrastructure to operationalize this policy will be put in place. This will include the establishment of language units in all provinces to manage –
 - intra and interdepartmental oral communication in all spheres of government;
 - intra and interdepartmental written communication in all spheres of government;
 - oral communication with the public;
 - written communication with the public;
 - South African sign language where applicable; and
 - international communication where applicable.
- 4.6 Other implementation mechanisms that will be operationalized in the department are a Telephone Interpreting Service for South Africa (TISSA), a strategy for the development of the previously marginalised languages and an HLT Strategy.
- 4.7 Additional departmental responsibilities are as follows:
 - Supporting the development of human resources through the official use of all South African languages in terms of the constitutional obligation to promote multilingualism;
 - Supporting special redress efforts and/or programmes for the marginalised indigenous languages, i.e. African languages and the Khoi, San and Nama languages, as well as SA Sign Language(s); and
 - Supporting the learning and teaching of all South African languages.

- 4.8 The language policy will be published in English. The policy will be available in all official languages in hard copy format at all departmental offices and in electronic format on the website. The policy will be available in Braille at all PSSC offices and National Office.

SECTION 5: COMPLAINTS MECHANISM

- 5.1 In the case of public dissatisfaction regarding the use of official languages a complaint may be lodged to the Director-General of the department.

 - (ii) be lodged within three months of the complaint arising;
 - (iii) state the name, address and contact information of the person lodging the complaint; and
 - (iv) provide a full and detailed description of the complaint.
- 5.4 The Director-General of the department may request a complainant to:
- (i) Supply additional information necessary to consider the complaint; and,
 - (ii) Attend a meeting for the purposes of making oral enquiry into the complaint.
- 5.5 The Director-General of the department must:
- (i) Consider the complaint and make a decision, no later than 3 months after the complaint was lodged; and,
 - (ii) Inform the complainant of the decision in writing.
- 5.6 A complainant not satisfied with a decision contemplated in paragraph 5.5 (ii) may lodge an appeal with:

SECTION 6: REVIEW OF POLICY

- 6.1 This policy will be continuously monitored for recommendations for amendments and reviewed every five years where necessary in order for the budget to be adjusted accordingly.

SECTION 7: CONCLUSION

- 7.1 This policy is intended to augment the law only and is always subject to the prescriptions of the law, as applicable from time to time. The latter will always prevail over this policy should any contractions between the two occur.

Historically disadvantaged languages	In the South African context, these are the languages that were assigned low status by former powerful groups and which were, as a result, not used or developed for use in the media, education (after early primary school), or in public or economically significant domains. Little support was given to the development of verbal art forms in these languages. They include indigenous languages, Heritage languages and SASL.
Human Language Technologies	The application of knowledge of language to the development of computer systems that can recognise, understand, interpret and generate human language in all forms, i.e. the development of applications that make it possible for human beings to interact with computers.
Indigenous language	A language native to a country.

SOUTH AFRICAN QUALIFICATIONS AUTHORITY

NO. 681

14 JULY 2017

SAQA LANGUAGE POLICY

In accordance with the Use of Languages Act, 2012, 4(1), the South African Qualifications Authority (SAQA), as a national public entity, has developed a Language Policy regarding the use of official languages for government purposes. The Language Policy was adopted by SAQA after a public consultation process.

SAQA's view is that this policy will contribute to the quality of SAQA services and the objectives of the National Qualifications Framework (NQF) Act, 67, (Act No. 67 of 2008), which states that, the aims of the NQF are to "contribute to the full personal development of each learner and the social and economic development of the nation at large."

The SAQA Language Policy is based on a number of Acts, Regulations and Guidelines including the Constitution of the Republic of South Africa, National Language Policy Framework, the Promotion of Access to Information Act, the Pan South African Language Board Act and the Batho Pele principles.

SAQA LANGUAGE POLICY

In accordance with the Use of Languages Act, 2012, 4(1), the South African Qualifications Authority (SAQA), as a national public entity, has developed a Language Policy regarding the use of official languages for government purposes. SAQA adopted the Policy after a public consultation process.

1. PURPOSE OF THE POLICY

1.1 The purpose of this Language Policy is to give details of the following:

1.1.1 The use, by SAQA, of English for its day-to-day activities including communicating with the general public;

1.1.2 Communication with:

- 1.1.2.1. people who use an indigenous South African language other than English and who are not proficient in English;
- 1.1.2.2. groups using indigenous South African languages where feasible;
- 1.1.2.3. Blind people; and
- 1.1.2.4. Deaf people.

1.2 The SAQA Language Policy is based on the following Acts, Regulations and Guidelines:

1.2.1 The Constitution of the Republic of South Africa, (1996), in terms of:

- Section 6(i) which affords official status to 11 languages and South African Sign Language;
- Section 6(3) which states that, “The national government and provincial government may use any particular language for purposes of government taking into account usage, practicality, expense and regional circumstances and the needs and preferences of the population as a whole or in the province”; and
- Section 30 which states that “Everyone has the right to use the language and participate in the cultural life of their choice”.

1.2.2 The National Language Policy Framework, (2003), which states that, “a publication policy of multilingualism (i.e. the function, the audience and the message) should be followed in those cases that do not require publication in all 11 official languages. However, where the effective and stable operation of government at any level requires comprehensive communication of information, it must be published in all 11 official languages”.

1.2.3 The Pan South African Language Board Act, (Act No. 59 of 1995), which provides for the recognition, implementation and furtherance of multilingualism and the development of previously marginalised languages.

1.2.4 The Promotion of Access to Information Act, (Act No. 2 of 2000), which gives effect to the constitutional right of access to any information held by the State and any information that is held by another person and that is required for the exercise or protection of any rights.

- 1.2.5 The Batho Pele Principles as contained in the government white paper on “Transforming Public Service Delivery” (1997).
- 1.2.6 The Use of Official Languages Act, (Act No. 12 of 2012) and Regulations, which require the adoption of a language policy by a national department, national public entity and national public enterprise.
- 1.2.7 The National Qualifications Framework (NQF) Act, (Act No. 67 of 2008), which states that, “The objectives of the NQF are designed to contribute to the full personal development of each learner and the social and economic development of the nation at large” (Section 5(2)).
- 1.2.8 The SAQA “Guidelines for Plain English Writing and Editing” (2015), which provides clear guidance for writing English in an accessible way.

1.3 SAQA has taken the decision to use English as the language of business and operations and to use (a) English, (b) at least one language from the Nguni cluster such as isiZulu, (c) at least one language from the Sotho cluster such as SeSotho, (d) Xitsonga, (e) TshiVenda, and (f) Afrikaans for oral communications with the public whenever feasible. This includes translating NQF policy documents into all 11 official languages over a period of time, through using sworn language practitioners (i.e., translators and interpreters). This will be done gradually taking the language clusters and costs into considerations until all the NQF policies have been translated into all the official languages. The decision has been taken in a spirit that is mindful of the following objectives and principles of the South African government, namely the need to:

- 1.3.1 promote multilingualism amongst the South African public;
- 1.3.2 support and grant equal access to information and services to all South Africans regardless of language, race, religion, sexual orientation or creed;
- 1.3.3 eradicate the marginalisation of indigenous South African languages;
- 1.3.4 foster respect for and respect for language rights;
- 1.3.5 use language that is accessible to all; and
- 1.3.6 promote a culture of social justice and inclusivity.

1.4 The mix of using English as the language for daily operations at SAQA, together with (a) at least one language from the Nguni cluster such as isiZulu, (b) at least one language from the Sotho cluster such as SeSotho, (c) XiTsonga, (d) TshiVenda, and (e) Afrikaans for oral communications with the public whenever feasible – as well as gradually translating NQF policy documents into all 11 official languages, and using sworn language practitioners (i.e., translators and interpreters), has been chosen for the following reasons:

- 1.4.1 South Africa, in its macro-level social and economic policies, emphasises both local development and integration into the global world. On the one hand, the focus on local development, and eradicating poverty and inequality is essential for the well-being of people in the country. The integration of South Africa into the global world is also of central importance to allow the lifeblood of developments to flow in and out of the country as needed. On the other hand, the use of indigenous languages is important for South Africa's internal development as well as social cohesion. The use of English is important for linking South Africa with the rest of Africa and the global world, international advancements, and technological development.

- 1.4.2 The need to have a standardised format and terminology for registered qualifications and part-qualifications and so avoid confusion and misunderstanding on the part of providers of education and training, learners and the general public.
- 1.4.3 The need for employers in the private and the public sectors to fully understand the qualifications held by prospective employees so as to make decisions on their suitability for employment. The NQF and its information system, the National Learners' Records Database (NLRD), contain information in English that is accessed by interested parties around the world.
- 1.4.4 SAQA is resource-dependent. However, SAQA is committed to its leadership role in the NQF context, which seeks to make quality lifelong learning in an integrated system for education, training, development and work, a reality for all people in South Africa. While daily operations will be in English, the NQF policies for which SAQA is responsible for will be translated into all the other 10 official languages in a gradual manner. For instance, in the first year SAQA will translate two of its NQF policies into two languages belonging to the Nguni and Sotho language clusters. This will be followed by the translation of the same two policies into TshiVenda, XiTsonga and Afrikaans. In the third year the same two policies will be translated into two other languages from the two main clusters, that is, Nguni and Sotho. The process will continue until all the official languages have been translated. This process will take four to five years to complete. As SAQA has nine NQF policies three more cycles will be needed to ensure that all the policies are translated into the other 10 official languages. This will take a further 12 to 15 years to complete.
- 1.4.5 Audio clips will be made available to benefit both the Deaf and Blind communities. SAQA will provide, where necessary, interpreting /translation services by sworn language practitioners for the other 10 official South African languages, and will continue to seek opportunities to use and promote the use of South Africa's 11 official languages within its resource context.

- 1.5 SAQA has an information manual which is available in all 11 official South African languages on the SAQA website which gives details of the services it offers. SAQA will seek opportunities on an ongoing basis to make other information available in all 11 official South African languages, as enabled by its resource context.

- 1.6 The rights of indigenous South African language speakers are safeguarded as is their right to access NQF information as SAQA handles client queries, both oral and written, in the preferred language of the client.

2. THE NATURE OF SAQA

- 2.1 SAQA is a juristic person established under the South African Qualifications Authority Act of 1995 and whose continued existence is confirmed by the National Qualifications Framework Act, (Act No. 67 of 2008).
- 2.2 SAQA is accountable to the Minister of Higher Education and Training.
- 2.3 The NQF is a comprehensive system approved by the Minister of Higher Education and Training for the:
- Classification;
 - Registration;
 - Publication; and
 - Articulation of quality-assured national qualifications.
- 2.4 The objectives of the NQF are designed to contribute to the full personal development of each learner and the social and economic development of the nation at large. The NQF objectives are to:
- 2.4.1 create a single integrated national framework for learning achievements;
- 2.4.2 facilitate access to, and mobility and progression within, education, training and career paths;
- 2.4.3 enhance the quality of education and training; and
- 2.4.4 accelerate the redress of past unfair discrimination in education, training and employment opportunities (NQF Act, Section 5).
- 2.5 The objectives of SAQA are to:
- 2.5.1 advance the objectives of the NQF;
- 2.5.2 oversee the further development and implementation of the NQF; and
- 2.5.3 co-ordinate the Sub-Frameworks of the NQF (NQF Act, Section 11).
- 2.6 SAQA sees the NQF as a framework for communication, co-ordination and collaboration across education, training, development and work.

3. SAQA's ROLE AND FUNCTIONS

In addition to achieving its objectives, SAQA is responsible for the following:

- 3.1 Advising the Minister of Higher Education and Training on NQF matters;

- 3.2 Developing a system of collaboration to guide the mutual relations of SAQA and the Quality Councils (QCs);
- 3.3 Resolving disputes regarding the QCs;
- 3.4 Developing, publishing and ensuring the currency and relevance of Level Descriptors;
- 3.5 Developing policy and criteria for the development, registration and publication of qualifications and part-qualifications;
- 3.6 Registering qualifications and part-qualifications recommended by the QCs on the NQF;
- 3.7 Developing policy and criteria for assessment, Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) and Credit Accumulation and Transfer (CAT);
- 3.8 Developing policy and criteria for the recognition of professional bodies and the registration of professional designations on the NQF;
- 3.9 Recognising professional bodies and registering professional designations on the NQF;
- 3.10 Liaising with international counterparts on qualifications framework matters and informing the QCs and other interested parties about international practice;
- 3.11 Conducting and commissioning research on issues relating to the development and implementation of the NQF, including periodic studies of the impact of the NQF on South African education, training, and employment – and publishing the findings;
- 3.12 Maintaining a national system of records of registered qualifications, registered part-qualifications, learner achievements, recognised professional bodies, registered professional designations and related information. This is done by means of populating and maintaining the National Learners' Records Database;
- 3.13 Providing a foreign qualifications evaluation and advisory service; and
- 3.14 Informing the public about the NQF.

4. THE NATURE OF THE SERVICES PROVIDED BY SAQA

SAQA provides ongoing support and information to learners, providers of education and training and the general public regarding registered qualifications and part-qualifications, learner achievements, professional bodies and professional designations, foreign qualifications, international qualification framework practices and trends, NQF-related research findings and any other related education and training matters. These services include the following:

4.1 Evaluating foreign qualifications

This service is for individual persons with foreign qualifications wishing to enrol for study at a South African institution and/or applying for work, study and/or residence visas/permits. Their qualification documents are often in foreign languages that require the competence to read these languages or the necessary tools to do so. Applicants are therefore required to submit quality translations together with qualifications in foreign languages. Communication with clients is through English, as it is the preferred language in business environments. SAQA employs some staff members with foreign language competencies and where possible, SAQA staff will communicate with foreigners in their own language. SAQA documentation and information, including application materials, policies, guidelines and Certificates of Evaluation, are available in English.

4.2 Verifying learners' South African qualifications and issuing certificates of achievement

Certificates are issued in English, but enquiries, which must be received in writing, may be made in any of the South African official languages.

4.3 Verifying the authenticity of qualifications for employers and institutions of learning

This service is provided to counter the presentation of misrepresented qualifications or qualifications issued by non-accredited institutions. Applications must be made in writing and may be in any of the official South African languages. The statements of authenticity are issued in English as that is the generally accepted language of government and business in South Africa.

4.4 Registering qualifications and part-qualifications on the NQF

Qualifications and part-qualifications are submitted to SAQA for registration on the NQF, in English, by the three Quality Councils. Communication (written and oral) regarding the qualifications or part-qualifications submitted by the Quality Councils is through the medium of English as the language of government and business in South Africa.

4.5 Recognising Professional Bodies and registering Professional Designations on the NQF

All communication with professional bodies regarding recognition and registration of professional designations is done in English as the language of government and business in South Africa. This includes applications for recognition and registration, corresponding certificates issued to professional bodies, site visits, monitoring visits, evaluation reports and queries.

4.6 Maintaining the National Learners' Records Database (NLRD)

The general public has electronic access to the databases of registered qualifications and part-qualifications, recognised professional bodies, registered professional designations and associated information which is available on the NLRD through the SAQA website. Clients may make e-mail, fax, written or telephonic enquiries on NLRD-related information. The NLRD Registers are kept in English to ensure the consistency of terminology and understanding and because the language of business is English. The NLRD and SAQA website are used by foreign countries as well as by the South African public. The enquiries submitted to SAQA may be in any of the South African official languages and the response will be given in the same language, unless the reply is to be used in a context where English is required.

4.7 Developing NQF policies

SAQA is required to develop, oversee the implementation, and keep current a number of NQF-related policies such as the NQF Level Descriptors, and national policies and criteria for; registering qualifications and part-qualifications on the NQF; recognising professional bodies and registering professional designations; the implementation of the RPL; implementing CAT; designing and implementing assessment; evaluating foreign qualifications; and the misrepresentation of qualifications and related information, among others. The development of the policies must be done in consultation with and in some cases after consultation with the Quality Councils. The meetings and work to develop the policies is done in English as the language of business, and the policies are published in the government gazette, and in hard copy form, in English. The main suite of NQF policies will be translated into all 10 South African official languages, and made available on SAQA's website.

4.8 Informing the public about the NQF

SAQA carries out a number of activities to inform the public about the NQF and to advocate the NQF. These include workshops, information sessions, hosting of conferences, compilation of publications and leaflets, posting of relevant information on social media and on print media as well as participating in conferences and workshops of other organisations when invited. The main NQF policies will be made available in a gradual manner in all 11 official languages. Most other publications and general NQF information are available in English. However, when SAQA participates in advocacy and information-giving events such as career exhibitions, radio and television broadcasts, and digital media where SAQA communicates with different groups of people in large numbers, SAQA will ensure that oral communications are in (a) English, (b) a language from the Nguni cluster such as isiZulu, (c) a language from the Sotho cluster such as SeSotho, (d) XiTsonga, (e) Tshivenda, or (f) Afrikaans, and (g) sign language, as appropriate and possible within the resource context.

4.9 Handling NQF-related queries from the general public

SAQA receives queries on a daily basis from the general public about NQF-related matters. The queries are received in writing by e-mail, fax and telephonically. Some clients visit the SAQA offices. Even though most queries are made in English, responses are given in other languages in which the query is submitted to SAQA. Where necessary, SAQA will provide the services of sworn language practitioners.

5. REGIONS OR GEOGRAPHIC LOCATIONS WHERE SAQA PROVIDES ITS SERVICES

SAQA is situated in Pretoria, but as required, provides its services across the country and internationally. Services are provided and queries answered either face-to-face at SAQA or by use of telephone, fax, e-mail, social media, letters, reports and certificates to customers who are unable to visit SAQA personally.

6. SAQA's OFFICIAL LANGUAGES

SAQA uses English as its medium of communication for all its day-to-day operations. However, English is used in conjunction with (a) at least one language from the Nguni cluster such as isiZulu, (b) at least one language from the Sotho cluster such as Sesotho, (c) XiTsonga, (d) Tshivenda, (e) Afrikaans and (f) sign language for oral/ sign language communications, where feasible. SAQA's business activities in English include:

- All meetings, workshops and conferences both within SAQA and for the general public;
- Agenda documents for meetings and minutes and records of meetings;
- Publications, e.g. policies, criteria and guideline documents and research findings;
- The SAQA Annual Integrated Report;
- Communication on the SAQA Intranet;
- The NLRD and other information systems used for managing NQF information;
- Communication with the Minister of Higher Education and Training and the Department of Higher Education and Training;
- Communication with other government departments;
- Completion of official forms;
- Advertisements of SAQA vacancies in the media;
- Notices in the government gazette;
- Certificates of evaluation, verification, registration and recognition;
- Disciplinary hearings; and
- Official signage in the SAQA building identifying facilities and services.

However, when communication is initiated by a client in another South African official language or by someone who is not proficient in English and where the use of English will lead to misunderstanding or confusion, the language of the client is used. In addition, ongoing attempts to use South Africa's 11 official languages on SAQA's website, and Braille/audio clips, where feasible, will be made.

7. COMMUNICATION WITH MEMBERS OF THE PUBLIC WHOSE LANGUAGE OF CHOICE IS NOT ENGLISH

SAQA communicates with members of the public whose language of choice is not English as follows:

- 7.1 Written queries (faxes, letters and e-mails) in a language other than English are referred to a staff member who is proficient in the language used, and will compile a response which is checked for correctness and accuracy according to set standards. If that staff member is unable to answer the query, then assistance is provided to prepare an appropriate response which is then translated into the language of the query, by a sworn translator. The reply is checked by a staff member who is proficient in the language and edited for correctness and accuracy according to set standards. While at times the services of sworn translators may need to be procured, SAQA will encourage staff members to volunteer for the learning and development required to become sworn translators.
- 7.2 Written requests in a language other than English for verifications, certificates, and others are dealt with as in point 7.1 above. However, the certificate/ statement is issued in English and accompanied by a letter in the client's language explaining the contents of the certificate and the reason for issuing it in English. The usual check for correctness of information is done according to set standards, by sworn translators. The certificates and statements are issued in English as that is the language of government and business in South Africa.
- 7.3 Oral requests (telephonic and from walk-in clients) in a language other than English are referred to a staff member proficient in the language of the client and can provide the required information in the language of the client. TREATY BETWEEN THE REPUBLIC OF SOUTH AFRICA AND THE ARGENTINE REPUBLIC ON MUTUAL LEGAL ASSISTANCE IN CRIMINAL MATTERS

THE REPUBLIC OF SOUTH AFRICA AND THE ARGENTINE REPUBLIC (hereinafter referred to in the singular as “a Party” and in the plural as “the Parties”);

DESIRING to improve the effectiveness of both countries in the investigation, prosecution and suppression of crime through cooperation and mutual legal assistance in criminal matters;

HAVE AGREED as follows:

ARTICLE 1Obligation to Provide Mutual Legal Assistance

1. The Parties shall, in accordance with this Treaty, provide each other with the widest measure of mutual legal assistance in criminal matters.
2. Mutual legal assistance is any assistance given by the Requested State in respect of investigations, prosecutions or proceedings in the Requesting State in a criminal matter, irrespective of whether the assistance is sought or is to be provided by a court or some other competent authority.
3. Criminal matters means, for the Republic of South Africa, both statutory and common law offences and, for the Argentine Republic, investigations, prosecutions or proceedings relating to any offence against its legislation.
4. Criminal matters also include investigations, prosecutions or proceedings relating to offences concerning taxation, customs duties, retirement schemes and foreign exchange.
5. Assistance shall be provided without regard to whether the conduct which is the subject of the investigation, prosecution, or proceedings in the Requesting State would constitute an offence under the laws of the Requested State. However, searches and seizures shall be conducted in accordance with the requirements of the law of the Requested State.
6. Assistance includes:
 - (a) locating and identifying persons and objects;
 - (b) serving documents, including those seeking the attendance of persons;
 - (c) providing information, documents and records;
 - (d) providing objects, including lending of exhibits;
 - (e) search and seizure;
 - (f) taking of evidence and obtaining statements;
 - (g) authorizing the presence of persons from the Requesting State to execute requests;

- (h) making detained persons available to give evidence or assist in investigations;
- (i) facilitating the appearance of witnesses or the assistance of persons in investigations;
- (j) taking measures to locate, restrain and seize the proceeds of crime; and
- (k) any other form of assistance not prohibited by the law of the Requested State.

ARTICLE 2

Execution of Requests

1. Requests for assistance shall be executed promptly in the manner specified by the Requesting State and in accordance with the law of the Requested State.
2. The Requested State shall, upon request, inform the Requesting State of the date and place of execution of the request for assistance.
3. The Requested State shall not refuse to execute a request on the grounds of bank secrecy.

ARTICLE 3

Contents of Requests

1. In all cases, requests for assistance shall indicate:
 - (a) the competent authority conducting the investigation, prosecution or proceedings to which the request relates;
 - (b) the nature of the investigation, prosecution or proceedings, and include a summary of the facts and a copy of the applicable laws;
 - (c) the purpose of the request and the nature of the assistance sought;
 - (d) the degree of confidentiality required and the reasons therefor; and
 - (e) any time within which the request should be executed.
2. In the following cases, requests for assistance shall specify:

 - (b) in the case of requests to take evidence from a person, whether sworn or affirmed statements are required and a description of the subject matter of the evidence or statement sought;
 - (c) in the case of lending of exhibits, the current location of the exhibits in the Requested State, the competent authority who will have custody of the exhibits in the Requesting State, the place to which the exhibits are to be removed, any tests to be conducted and the date by which the exhibits will be returned; and

- (d) in the case of making detained persons available, the competent authority who will have custody during the transfer, the place to which the detained person is to be transferred and the date of that person's return.

 - (b) details of any particular procedure or requirement that the Requesting State wishes to be followed and the reasons therefor.
- 4. If the Requested State considers that the information is not sufficient to enable the request to be executed, it may request additional information.
- 5. A request shall be made in writing. In urgent circumstances, a request may be made but shall be confirmed in writing promptly thereafter.

ARTICLE 4

Refusal or Postponement of Assistance

- 1. Assistance may be refused if, in the opinion of the Requested State, the execution of the request would affect its sovereignty, security, public order or essential public interest. Assistance may also be refused when the legislation of the Requested State so provides.
- 2. Assistance may be postponed by the Requested State if execution of the request would interfere with an ongoing investigation or prosecution in that State.
- 3. The Requested State shall promptly inform the Requesting State of a decision of the Requested State not to comply in whole or in part with a request for assistance, or to postpone execution, and shall give reasons for that decision.
- 4. 3. The Requested State may provide certified true copies of documents or records, unless the Requesting State expressly requests originals.
4. Original documents, records or objects provided to the Requesting State shall be returned to the Requested State as soon as possible.
5. Insofar as not prohibited by the law of the Requested State, documents, records or objects shall be provided together with a form or accompanied by such certification as may be specified by the Requesting State in order to make them admissible according to the law of the said State.

ARTICLE 8

I, Tshililo Michael Masutha, Minister of Justice and Correctional Services, hereby give notice in terms of section 2(3) ter of the Extradition Act, 1962 (Act No. 67 of 1962), that the Parliament of the Republic of South Africa has on 29 August 2007 agreed to the ratification of the Mutual Legal Assistance in Criminal Matters Treaty between the Republic of South Africa and the Argentine Republic as set out in the Schedule. Schedule

EXTRADITION TREATY BETWEEN THE REPUBLIC OF SOUTH AFRICA AND THE ARGENTINE REPUBLIC

THE REPUBLIC OF SOUTH AFRICA AND THE ARGENTINE REPUBLIC, hereinafter referred in the singular as “a Party” and in the plural as “the Parties”,

DESIRING to make more effective their co-operation in the prevention and suppression of crime by concluding a new Treaty on Extradition;

AFFIRMING their respect for each other’s legal systems and judicial institutions;

HEREBY AGREED as follows:

ARTICLE 1
Obligation to Extradite

Each Party agrees to extradite to the other, in accordance with the provisions of this Treaty, persons who are wanted for prosecution, or the imposition or enforcement of a sentence in the Requesting State for an extraditable offence.

ARTICLE 2
Extraditable Offence

1. For the purposes of this Treaty, extradition shall be granted for conduct which constitutes an offence under the laws of both Parties, that is punishable by deprivation of liberty for a maximum period of more than one year or by a more severe punishment.
2. An extraditable offence includes an attempt or a conspiracy or unlawful association to commit, or participation in or instigation of the commission of any offence envisaged under paragraph 1 of this Article.
3. Where the request for extradition relates to a person sentenced to deprivation of liberty by a court of the Requesting State for an extraditable offence, extradition shall be granted if a period of at least six months of the sentence remains to be served.
4. For the purpose of this Article, in determining whether conduct is an offence against the laws of both Parties it shall not matter:
 - (a) whether the laws of the Parties place the conduct constituting the offence within the same category of offence or describe the offence by the same terminology; or

- (b) whether, pursuant to the laws of the Parties, the elements of the offence differ, in which case the totality of the conduct alleged against the person whose extradition is sought shall be taken into account.
- 5. Where extradition of a person is sought for an offence against laws relating to taxation, customs duties, exchange control, or other revenue matters, extradition may not be refused on the ground that the laws of the Requested State do not impose the same kind of tax or duty or do not contain tax, customs duty or exchange regulations of the same kind as the laws of the Requesting State.
- 6. An offence is extraditable whether or not the conduct on which the Requesting State bases its request occurred in the territory over which it has jurisdiction. However, where the law of the Requested State does not provide for jurisdiction over an offence in similar circumstances, the Requested State may refuse extradition on this basis.
- 7. Extradition may be granted pursuant to the provisions of this Treaty in respect of an offence provided that:
 - (a) it was an offence in the Requesting State at the time of the conduct constituting the offence; and
 - (b) the alleged conduct would, if it had taken place in the Requested State at the time of making the request for extradition, have constituted an offence against the law of the Requested State.
- 8. If the request for extradition relates to a sentence of both imprisonment and a fine, the Requested State may grant extradition for the enforcement of both.
- 9. If extradition has been granted for an extraditable offence, it shall also be granted for any other offence specified in the request, even if this offence is punishable by deprivation of liberty for a period of one year or less, provided that all other requirements for extradition are met.

ARTICLE 3

Mandatory Refusal of Extradition

Extradition shall be refused in circumstances where:

- 1. The offence for which extradition is requested is considered to be a political offence. For the purpose of this paragraph however, the following conduct does not constitute a political offence:
 - (a) an attack on or intentional crime against the physical integrity of a Head of State or a member of that person's family;
 - (b) any offence mentioned in a multilateral agreement pursuant to which the Parties have assumed or will assume the obligation to extradite the person sought or to submit the case to the competent authorities for prosecution;

- (c) murder or grievous bodily harm;
 - (d) offences against sexual integrity;
 - (e) kidnapping, abduction, hostage-taking or extortion;
 - (f) using explosives, incendiary elements, devices or substances in circumstances in which human life is likely to be endangered, or serious bodily harm or substantial property damage is likely to be caused; and
 - (g) an attempt, a conspiracy or unlawful association, participation in or instigation of, the commission of any offence envisaged in this paragraph.
2. There are substantial grounds to believe that the request for extradition is made for the purpose of prosecuting or punishing a person by reason of that person's race, religion, nationality, ethnic origin, language, colour, political opinion, sex, sexual orientation, age, mental or physical disability or status, or that that person's position may be prejudiced for any of those reasons.
 3. There are substantial grounds to believe that the person sought may be subjected to torture or to cruel, inhuman or degrading treatment or punishment.
 4. The prosecution for the offence or penalty for which extradition is requested would be barred by prescription under the law of the Requesting State.
 5. The offence for which extradition is requested is an offence exclusively under the military law and is not an offence under ordinary criminal law.
 6. The person sought has been finally acquitted or convicted in the Requested State for the same offence for which extradition is requested.

ARTICLE 4

Death Penalty

The request for extradition shall be refused where the offence for which extradition is sought is punishable by the death penalty under the laws of the Requesting State, unless the Requesting State provides assurances that the death penalty shall not be imposed.

ARTICLE 5

Nationality

Extradition shall not be refused on the grounds of the nationality of the person sought.

ARTICLE 6

Discretionary Refusal of Extradition

Extradition may be refused in circumstances where:

1. The offence for which extradition is requested is already subject to the jurisdiction of the Requested State.
2. The person sought is being prosecuted by the Requested State for the offence for which extradition is requested.
3. The Requested State, while also taking into account the seriousness of the offence and the interests of the Requesting State, considers that because of the personal circumstances of the person sought, the extradition would be fully incompatible with humanitarian considerations.
4. The person sought has been acquitted or convicted in a third State for the same offence for which extradition is requested and, if convicted, the sentence imposed has been fully enforced or is no longer enforceable.

ARTICLE 7

Extradition Request and Required Documentation

1. A request for extradition shall be made in writing and be submitted through the diplomatic channels.
2. A request for extradition shall be supported by:
 - (a) information pertaining to the description, identity, location and nationality of the person sought and, if available, photographs and fingerprints of that person;
 - (b) a summary of the facts of the offence and a brief explanation of the procedural history of the case;
 - (c) the text of the law or laws describing the criminal conduct for which extradition is requested, and the applicable penalty;
 - (d) a statement that neither the prosecution nor the execution of the penalty is barred by limitation according to the laws of the Requesting State; and

- (e) documents, statements or other information specified in paragraph 3 or paragraph 4 of this Article, whichever is applicable.
3. A request for the extradition of a person who is sought for prosecution shall also be supported by:
- (a) a copy of the warrant of arrest or detention for the person sought, issued by an appropriate authority;
 - (b) a copy of the charging document, if any, against the person sought; and
 - (c) a certificate issued by the competent or prosecutory authority in charge of the prosecution of the case, containing a summary of the available evidence and stating that the evidence at its disposal is sufficient under the law of the Requesting State to warrant the prosecution of the person sought.
4. A request for the extradition of a person who has been found guilty of, or sentenced for an offence for which extradition is requested shall be made pursuant to the requirements provided for in paragraph 2 and also be supported by:
- (a) a copy of the judgement of conviction or, if such copy is not available, a statement by a judicial authority that the person sought has been found guilty;
 - (b) if the person sought has been sentenced, a certificate stating that the sentence has not been fully served and the extent to which it has not been served; and
 - (c) information establishing that the person sought is the one to whom the finding of guilt and, if applicable, sentence refers.

ARTICLE 8 Admissibility of Documents

Any document, including a translation, accompanying an extradition request shall be received and admitted as evidence in any extradition proceedings if:

- (a) it is signed or certified by a competent authority of the Requesting State; or
- (b) it is certified or authenticated in any other way accepted by the laws of the Requested State.

ARTICLE 9

Translation

All documents submitted in accordance with this Treaty shall be translated into an official language of the Requested State.

ARTICLE 10

Additional Information

If the Requested State considers that the information furnished in support of a request for extradition is not sufficient in accordance with this Treaty to enable extradition to be granted, it may request that additional information be furnished by the Requesting State within a specified term.

ARTICLE 11

Simplified Extradition

1. If the person sought consents to his/her extradition to the Requesting State, the Requested State may surrender the person as expeditiously as possible without further proceedings.
2. Such consent shall be expressly communicated to the competent authority of the Requested State.

ARTICLE 12

Provisional Arrest

1. In case of urgency, the Requesting State may apply through the diplomatic channels or the International Criminal Police Organization (INTERPOL) for the provisional arrest of the person sought. Alternatively, the application may be transmitted directly between the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, International Trade and Worship of the Argentine Republic and the Department of Justice and Constitutional Development of the Republic of South Africa.

The application may be transmitted by post, telegraph or by any other means affording a record in writing.

2. An application for provisional arrest shall include the following:
 - (a) information pertaining to the description, identity, location and nationality of the person sought and, if available, photographs and fingerprints of that person;
 - (b) a statement that a request for extradition will follow;
 - (c) a description of the nature of the offence and applicable penalty, with a brief summary of the facts of the case, including the date and place of commission of the offence;

- (d) mention of the law or laws relevant to the criminal conduct;
 - (e) a statement attesting to the existence of a warrant of arrest or a conviction in respect of the person sought; and
 - (f) an explanation of the reasons for the urgency of the request.
3. The Requested State shall promptly inform the Requesting State of the measures taken pursuant to the application for provisional arrest.
 4. Provisional arrest shall be terminated if the Requested State has not received the request for extradition and supporting documents pursuant to Article 7 within sixty (60) days after the arrest. The competent authorities of the Requested State, to the extent permitted by the law of the State, may extend that term with regard to the reception of the documents. However, the person sought may be released at any time, in accordance with the laws of the Requested State.
 5. The fact that the person sought has been discharged from custody in accordance with paragraph 4 of this Article does not preclude subsequent arrest and extradition if a request for extradition is received at a later date.

ARTICLE 13

Concurrent Requests

1. Where requests are received from two or more States for the extradition of the same person, either for the same offence or for different offences, the Requested State shall determine to which of those States the person is to be extradited and shall notify those States of its decision.
2. In determining to which State a person is to be extradited, the Requested State shall have regard to all relevant circumstances and, in particular, to:
 - (a) the seriousness of the offences;
 - (b) the date and place of commission of each offence;
 - (c) the dates on which the requests were received from the Requesting States;
 - (d) the nationality of the person sought;
 - (e) the usual place of residence of the person;
 - (f) whether the requests were made pursuant to an extradition treaty;
 - (g) the interests of the respective States;
 - (h) the nationality of the victim; and
 - (i) the possibility of further extradition between the Requesting States.

ARTICLE 14

Decision and Surrender

1. The Requested State shall, as soon as a decision on the request for extradition has been made, communicate that decision to the Requesting State. Reasons shall be given for any complete or partial refusal of an extradition request. Copies of relevant judicial decisions shall be provided by the Requested State on request.
2. If extradition is granted, the Parties shall agree on the time and place for the surrender of the person sought. If such person is not removed from the territory of the Requested State within thirty (30) calendar days from the time of notification referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article, or within such longer period as may be provided for by the law of that State, the person may be discharged from custody and the Requested State may refuse a subsequent extradition request by the Requesting State in respect of the same offence.
3. If circumstances beyond its control prevent a Party from surrendering or removing the person to be extradited, it shall notify the other Party. The Parties shall mutually decide a new date for the surrender of the person concerned.

ARTICLE 15

Temporary or Deferred Surrender

1. Where the person sought is being prosecuted or is serving a sentence in the Requested State for an offence other than that for which extradition is requested, the Requested State may surrender the person sought or postpone surrender until the conclusion of the proceedings or the service of the whole or part of the sentence imposed. The Requested State shall inform the Requesting State of any postponement.
2. To the extent permitted by its law, where a person referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article has been found extraditable, the Requested State may temporarily surrender the person sought for the purpose of any criminal proceedings to the Requesting State in accordance with conditions to be determined between the Parties. The person so surrendered shall be kept in custody in the Requesting State and shall be returned to the Requested State after the conclusion of such proceedings. A person who is returned to the Requested State following a temporary surrender shall be finally surrendered to the Requesting State to serve any sentence imposed, in accordance with the provisions of this Treaty.
3. The postponement by the Requested State of extradition proceedings or surrender shall, for purposes of this Treaty, suspend the course of prescription in the judicial proceedings in the Requesting State with respect to the offence or offences that gave rise to the request for extradition.

ARTICLE 16
Seizure and Surrender of Property

1. To the extent permitted by its law, the Requested State may seize and surrender to the Requesting State any property, documents and evidence connected with the offence in respect of which extradition is granted. Such items shall be surrendered even if extradition, having been granted, cannot be carried out owing to death, disappearance or escape of the person sought.
2. The Requested State may condition the surrender of the property and evidence upon the giving of satisfactory assurances by the Requesting State as to the return to the Requested State of the items as soon as practicable. The Requested State may also defer the surrender of such property and evidence should they be required in criminal proceedings in that State.
3. The rights of third persons to such property and evidence shall be duly respected. Where such rights exist, the property, documents or evidence shall be returned without charge to the Requested State as soon as possible after the trial.

ARTICLE 17
Rule of Specialty

1. A person extradited under this Treaty shall not be tried, punished or detained in the Requesting State for any offence committed prior to the surrender other than that for which that person was extradited except:
 - (a) for the offence for which extradition was granted, or for an offence differently described or a lesser offence which is based on substantially the same facts on which extradition was granted provided such offence is extraditable;
 - (b) for an offence committed by that person after his/her surrender;
 - (c) for an offence for which the competent authority of the Requested State consents to that person's detention, trial or service of the sentence;
 - (d) where the person extradited consents before a judicial authority in the Requesting State.

For the purposes of subparagraph (c) and (d):

- (i) the Requested State may require the submission of the documents specified in Article 7; and

- (ii) the person surrendered may be detained by the Requesting State for a period of sixty (60) calendar days, or for such longer period as the Requested State may authorize, pending the processing of the request.
- 2. A person surrendered under this Treaty may not be extradited to a third State for an offence committed by that person prior to his/her surrender unless the surrendering State consents thereto. The State which surrendered the person may request the production of the documents referred to in Article 7.
- 3. Paragraphs 1 and 2 of this Article shall not prevent the detention, trial or serving of sentence of a person surrendered, or the extradition of that person to a third State, if that person:
 - (a) leaves the territory of the Requesting State after the extradition and voluntarily returns to it; or
 - (b) having had the opportunity to leave the territory of the Requesting State, has not done so within thirty (30) calendar days from the day that person was free to leave.

ARTICLE 18

Transit

- 1. Either Party may authorize the transit through its territory of a person surrendered to the other Party by a third State.
- 2. A request for transit shall be transmitted through the diplomatic channels. In cases of urgency, such request may also be transmitted through the International Criminal Police Organization (INTERPOL).
- 3. The request for transit may be transmitted by any means affording a record in writing and shall contain:
 - (a) a description of the person together with any other information that may help to establish the person's identity and nationality; and
 - (b) a brief statement of the facts of the case mentioning the offence or offences for which that person was surrendered by the third State.
- 4. Permission for the transit of a person surrendered shall, subject to the law of the Requested State, include permission for that person to be held in custody during transit. If transportation is not resumed within a reasonable time, the competent authority of the State in whose territory the person is being held in custody may direct that the person be released.

5. Authorization is not required in the case of transportation by air if no landing is scheduled on the territory of the other Party. Should an unscheduled landing occur, the Party in whose territory it occurs may require a request for transit pursuant to paragraphs 2 and 3 of this Article and may detain the person until the request is received and the transit effected, provided that such request be received within ninety-six (96) hours of the unscheduled landing.

ARTICLE 19

Expenses

1. The Requested State shall take all the necessary steps among its authorities for any proceedings arising out of a request for extradition and shall bear the expenses.
2. The Requesting State shall:
 - (a) bear the expenses related to the translation of documents; and
 - (b) bear the expenses incurred in conveying the person extradited from the territory of the Requested State.

ARTICLE 20

Representation

1. The Requested State shall, through its competent authorities, represent the interests of the Requesting State in any proceedings relating to a request for extradition. It shall also advise and assist the Requesting State in matters pertaining to such request.
2. In addition, and to the extent permitted by the law of the Requested State, the Requesting State may appoint a legal representative with legal capacity to participate in the proceedings.

ARTICLE 21

Consultation

The Ministry of Foreign Affairs, International Trade and Worship of the Argentine Republic and the Department of Justice and Constitutional Development of the Republic of South Africa, may consult with each other directly in connection with the processing of individual cases and in furtherance of efficient implementation of this Treaty.

ARTICLE 22

Ratification, Entry into Force and Termination

1. This Treaty shall be subject to ratification. The instruments of ratification shall be exchanged as soon as possible.

2. This Treaty shall enter into force on the day after the date of the exchange of instruments of ratification and shall apply to any extradition request submitted after it enters into force.
3. This Treaty shall apply to any offence contemplated in Article 2 committed before or after this Treaty enters into force.
4. Upon its entry into force, the Treaty between the Argentine Republic and Her Britannic Majesty on the Mutual Surrender of Fugitive Criminals concluded in Buenos Aires on 22 May, 1889 (the 1889 Treaty), shall cease to have any effect. Nevertheless, Article 11 of this Treaty shall apply to any extradition request submitted pursuant to the 1889 Treaty before the entry into force of this Treaty. Furthermore, Article 17 of this Treaty shall apply to persons found extraditable under the 1889 Treaty.
5. This Treaty may be amended by mutual consent of the Parties through an Exchange of Notes between the Parties through the diplomatic channel.
6. Either Party may terminate this Treaty by written notice to the other Party given through the diplomatic channels. The termination shall take effect six (6) months after the date on which it was notified to the other Party.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF the undersigned, being duly authorised by their respective States, have signed and sealed this Treaty in duplicate in the English and Spanish languages, both texts being equally authentic.

DONE at Pretoria on 28th day of February in the year 2007.
