(2) If more than one candidate has been nominated, the Presiding Officer must announce the names of the candidates nominated and may thereafter suspend proceedings for such period as he or she may deem necessary.

(3) If at any stage in the election procedure before the announcement of the result a candidate for whatever reason becomes ineligible for election, the Presiding Officer must declare the nomination null and void, and he or she may proceed with the election or start that process anew or take such steps as he or she considers necessary.

In the event of an election under these Rules in the National Assembly and a Provincial Legislature it must be issued to every Member present and eligible to vote at the meeting. And in the event of an election under these Rules in the National Council of Provinces the ballot must be issued to every Head of a provincial delegation, in the following manner:
- (a) The returning officer must call out the names of persons eligible to vote from the official Members' list, or from a list of the names of Heads of provincial delegations, as the case may be.

- (7) If, during the ballot, the Presiding Officer is satisfied that a ballot paper has been inadvertently spoiled, he or she must instruct the returning officer to cancel that ballot paper, endorse the counterfoil thereof accordingly and issue a new ballot paper to the Member or the Leader of the provincial delegation concerned.

INVALID BALLOT PAPERS

(2) A question of procedure may be raised, with the Presiding Officer's leave, by way of a motion proposed by a Member or, in the event of an election under these Rules in the National Council of Provinces, a Head of a provincial delegation on behalf of a delegation, and seconded by another Member or by a Head of another delegation on behalf of such other delegation, as the case may be.

(3) If he or she considers it necessary or desirable in a particular case, the Presiding Officer may permit a discussion of the question and may limit participation in, and the duration of, the discussion in such manner as he or she thinks fit.
