NOTICE IN TERMS OF SECTION 39 OF THE PREVENTION OF ORGANISED CRIME ACT 121 OF 1998 (POCA)
The National Director of Public Prosecutions obtained a preservation of property order in the High Court of South Africa (Eastern Cape Division Grahamstown ) on 217 December 2020 under case number 2830/2020 in relation to an amount to R728 920 .00 (the property) which was was stolen by false pretence held in the following banking institutions: Standard Bank account number 101 349 863 67 in the name of Pumla Rivonia Ranafemo, Standard Bank account number 101 364 334 38 under the name of Kokecho Marike Sidiki and ABSA account number 409 954 9245 under the name of FAZ distributors .

This notice is addressed to and all other persons who may have an interest in the property described above.

Take notice that:

1. If you have an interest in the property, you should understand that it is now at risk. You are advised to obtain legal advice on whether your interest can be protected and, if so, on how to protect it.
2. You are notified that the National Director will, within 90 days of publication of this notice, apply to the High Court under section 48 of the POCA for a forfeiture order. The preservation order will remain in force until the application for a forfeiture order is finalised, and until any forfeiture order that is made is satisfied.

3. If you intend to oppose the application for a forfeiture order, or you intend to apply for an order excluding your interest from a forfeiture order in respect of the property, you must enter an appearance in terms of the order. The requirements for such an appearance are set out in the order and are also dealt with in sections 39(3), (4) and (5) of the POCA. An appearance must comply with these requirements.

4. Your attention is specifically drawn to the 14-day time limit prescribed in section 39(4) for the entry of an appearance referred to in paragraph 3 above.

5. If you enter an appearance in terms of the order you will be entitled to be given 14 days notice of the application by the applicant for a forfeiture order in respect of the property.

6. If you fail to enter an appearance in terms of the order or to comply with the above requirements, you will not be given notice of the application for a forfeiture order and you will not be entitled to appear at the hearing of the application. In such a case, the court may grant a default order forfeiting the property to the state under section 53 of the POCA.

7. You may, on good cause shown (including the non-availability of any other suitable remedy to protect your legitimate rights or interests), on 3 days notice in urgent instances and at least 7 days notice in other instances to the applicant, and within 8 days of becoming aware of the order, apply for reconsideration of the order.

8. You are specifically advised that even if you intend to apply for reconsideration of the preservation order in this case, you must, in addition, comply with paragraphs 4 and 5 above if you intend to oppose the forfeiture application at a later date. Failure to do so can result in a forfeiture order being granted against the property by default and without further notice to you.

9. Whenever this order states that you must deliver or serve any notice, affidavit or other process document on the applicant, you must deliver or serve them on the applicant at the following address:

Re: R12 250 that is proceeds of sale of drugs

NOTICE IN TERMS OF SECTION 39(1) (b) OF THE PREVENTION OF ORGANISED CRIME ACT 121 OF 1998
(POCA)

This notice is addressed to and all persons who have an interest in the R12 250 seized by the South African Police Service (SAPS) from Hilary Chikwubu at Oxford Street and 89 Moore Street, Quigney, East London and currently held in East London SAP 13 exhibit book number 27502/2020/ (property).

Take notice that:

1 The National Director of Public Prosecutions (the National Director) has obtained a preservation of property order (the Order), a copy of which is attached to this notice, in terms of section 38(2) of POCA in respect of the property.

2 If you have an interest in the property, you should understand that it is now at risk. You are advised to obtain legal advice on whether your interest can be protected and, if so, on how to protect it.

3 You are advised that the National Director will, within 90 days of publication of this notice, apply to the East London High Court under section 48 of POCA for an order declaring the property forfeit to the State. The Order will remain in force until the application for a forfeiture order is finalised, and until any forfeiture order that is made is satisfied.

4 If you intend opposing the application for a forfeiture order, or you intend applying for an order excluding your interest from a forfeiture order in respect of the property, you must enter an appearance in terms of the Order. The requirements for such an appearance are set out in the Order and are also dealt with in sections 39(3), (4) and (5) of POCA. An appearance must comply with these requirements.

5 Your attention is specifically drawn to the 14-day time limit prescribed in section 39(4) for the entry of an appearance referred to in paragraph 4 above.

6 If you enter an appearance in terms of the Order you will be entitled to be given 14 days notice of the application by the Applicant for a forfeiture order in respect of the property.

7 If you fail to enter an appearance in terms of the Order or to comply with the above requirements, you will not be given notice of the application for a forfeiture order and you will not be entitled to appear at the hearing of the application. In such a case, the Court may grant a default order forfeiting the property to the State under section 53 of POCA.

8 You may, on good cause shown (including the non-availability of any other suitable remedy to protect your legitimate rights or interests), on 72 hours notice to the Applicant, and within 8 days of becoming aware of the Order, apply for reconsideration of the Order.

9 You are specifically advised that even if you intend applying for reconsideration of the preservation order in this case, you must in addition comply with paragraphs 4 and 5 above if you intend opposing the forfeiture application, subsequently. Failure to do so can result in a forfeiture order being granted against the cash by default and without further notice to you.

10 Whenever this order states that you must deliver or serve any notice, affidavit or other process document on the Applicant, you must deliver or serve them on the Applicant at the following address:

State Attorney, 17 Fleet Street, East London. 043 702 4005.

You may, on good cause shown (including the non-availability of any other suitable remedy to protect your legitimate rights or interests), on 3 days notice in urgent instances and at least 7 days notice in other instances to the applicant, and within 8 days of becoming aware of the order, apply for reconsideration of the order.
8. You are specifically advised that even if you intend to apply for reconsideration of the preservation order in this case, you must, in addition, comply with paragraphs 4 and 5 above if you intend to oppose the forfeiture application at a later date. Failure to do so can result in a forfeiture order being granted against the property by default and without further notice to you.
9. Whenever this order states that you must deliver or serve any notice, affidavit or other process document on the applicant, you must deliver or serve them on the applicant at the following address:

Case No: 5035/21

IN THE HIGH COURT OF SOUTH AFRICA
(WESTERN CAPE DIVISION)

CAPE TOWN, 2021-04-06, Before the Honourable Ms Justice Fortuin

In the matter between: The National Director of Public Prosecutions, Applicant and Fazel February, Respondent

In re: Application in terms of Section 38 of the Prevention of Organised Crime Act 121 of 1998 in respect of R16 720 in cash that was seized from the respondent on 5 October 2018 by members of the South African Police Service

Having considered the documents filed of record and having heard counsel for the Applicant:

NOTICE IN TERMS OF SECTION 39 OF THE PREVENTION OF ORGANISED CRIME ACT 121 OF 1998 (POCA)

The National Director of Public Prosecutions applied for and was granted a preservation of property order in terms of section 38 of the Prevention of Organised Crime Act, No. 121 of 1998 in the High Court of South Africa (Western Cape Division, Cape Town) on 6 April 2021 in case number 5035/2021 in relation to: a R16 720, in cash seized by members of the South African Police Service on 8 October 2018. (a copy of the application and order can be obtained from the person mentioned in par 9 hereunder).

This notice is addressed to all persons who may have an interest in the property described above.

Take notice that:

1 If you have an interest in the property, you should understand that it is now at risk. You are advised to obtain legal advice on whether your interest can be protected and, if so, on how to protect it.

2 You are notified that the National Director will, within 90 days of publication of this notice, apply to the High Court under section 48 of the POCA for a forfeiture order. The preservation order will remain in force until the application for a forfeiture order is finalised, and until any forfeiture order that is made is satisfied.

3 If you intend to oppose the application for a forfeiture order, or you intend to apply for an order excluding your interest from a forfeiture order in respect of the property, you must enter an appearance in terms of the order. The requirements for such an appearance are set out in the order and are also dealt with in sections 39(3), (4) and (5) of the POCA. An appearance must comply with these requirements and must be delivered to the office of the State Attorney at the address mentioned in paragraph 9, below.

4 Your attention is specifically drawn to the 14-day time limit prescribed in section 39(4) for the entry of an appearance referred to in paragraph 3 above.

5 If you enter an appearance in terms of the order you will be entitled to be given 14 days notice of the application by the applicant for a forfeiture order in respect of the property.

6 If you fail to enter an appearance in terms of the order or to comply with the above requirements, you will not be given notice of the application for a forfeiture order and you will not be entitled to appear at the hearing of the application. In such a case, the court may grant a default order forfeiting the property to the state under section 53 of the POCA.

7 You may, on good cause shown (including the non-availability of any other suitable remedy to protect your legitimate rights or interests), on 3 days notice in urgent instances and at least 7 days notice in other instances to the applicant, and within 8 days of becoming aware of the order, apply for reconsideration of the order.

8 You are specifically advised that even if you intend to apply for reconsideration of the preservation order in this case, you must, in addition, comply with paragraphs 4 and 5 above if you intend to oppose the forfeiture application at a later date. Failure to do so can result in a forfeiture order being granted against the property by default and without further notice to you.

9 Whenever this order states that you must deliver or serve any notice, affidavit or other process document on the applicant, you must deliver or serve them on the applicant at the following address:

The State Attorney: Mr Z Karjiker, 5th Floor, 22 Long Street, CAPE TOWN

HLUHLUWE SAP 13/196/2020 (HLUHLUWE CAS 30/05/2020)

NOTICE IN TERMS OF SECTION 39 OF THE PREVENTION OF ORGANISED CRIME ACT 121 OF 1998 (POCA)
The National Director of Public Prosecutions obtained a preservation of property order in the High Court of South Africa (KwaZulu-Natal Division, Durban) on 26 March 2021 in case number D6460/2020 in relation to R98 500.00 cash (a copy of which can be obtained from the person motioned in par 9 hereunder).

This notice is addressed to Afework Tira and all other persons who may have an interest in the property described above.

Take notice that:

1. If you have an interest in the property, you should understand that it is now at risk. You are advised to obtain legal advice on whether your interest can be protected and, if so, on how to protect it.
2. You are notified that the National Director will, within 90 days of publication of this notice, apply to the High Court under section 48 of the POCA for a forfeiture order. The preservation order will remain in force until the application for a forfeiture order is finalised, and until any forfeiture order that is made is satisfied.
3. If you intend to oppose the application for a forfeiture order, or you intend to apply for an order excluding your interest from a forfeiture order in respect of the property, you must enter an appearance in terms of the order. The requirements for such an appearance are set out in the order and are also dealt with in sections 39(3), (4) and (5) of the POCA. An appearance must comply with these requirements.
4. Your attention is specifically drawn to the 14-day time limit prescribed in section 39(4) for the entry of an appearance referred to in paragraph 3 above.
5. If you enter an appearance in terms of the order you will be entitled to be given 14 days notice of the application by the applicant for a forfeiture order in respect of the property.
6. If you fail to enter an appearance in terms of the order or to comply with the above requirements, you will not be given notice of the application for a forfeiture order and you will not be entitled to appear at the hearing of the application. In such a case, the court may grant a default order forfeiting the property to the state under section 53 of the POCA.
7. You may, on good cause shown (including the non-availability of any other suitable remedy to protect your legitimate rights or interests), on 3 days notice in urgent instances and at least 21 days notice in other instances to the applicant, after becoming aware of the order, apply for reconsideration of the order.
8. You are specifically advised that even if you intend to apply for reconsideration of the preservation order in this case, you must, in addition, comply with paragraphs 4 and 5 above if you intend to oppose the forfeiture application at a later date. Failure to do so can result in a forfeiture order being granted against the property by default and without further notice to you.

9. Whenever this order states that you must deliver or serve any notice, affidavit or other process document on the applicant, you must deliver or serve them on the applicant at the following address: The State Attorney, Kwazulu-Natal, 6th floor, Metropolitan Life Building, 391 Anton Lembede Street, Durban, Tel: 031-3652500.
